Japs Have Ultimatum Ready To Present to China Today If Demands Are Not Granted

Document in Hands of Japanese Diplomats at Pekin, Who Are Trying to Persuade Chinese to Accede.

FURTHER CONCESSIONS ARE MADE BY CHINA

If Ultimatum Is Presented, Appeal Will Be Made to United States, Great Britain, Russia and France.

Pekin, May 7.—The Japanese legation has informed the Chinese foreign office that Japan would be unable to accept the further concessions offered Thursday by China, and would present an ultimatum before 3 o'clock this (Friday) afternoon, unless the twenty-four demands were accepted by China without qualification.

The Japanese legation continued yesterday its efforts to persuade the Chinese government to concede Japan's demands without the necessity of serving the ultimatum, which was received early yesterday.

The secretary of the legation visited the foreign office and informed Vice Minister Tsao Yulin that the legation had received the ultimatum and that it would be presented unless China agreed to Japan's twenty-four demands before 7 o'clock in the evening. Tsao Yulin immediately visited Yuan Shi Kai, and after a conference with the executive and other members of the government, conveyed to the Japanese legation the following further concessions:

More Concessions Made.

China reiterated, regarding Shantung province, that she would grant Japan everything that already had been granted to Germany there by treaty.

China agreed to grant Japanese the right to work mines in south Manchuria and eastern Mongolia; that all disputes between the Japanese in Manchuria, of whatever nature, shall be under Japanese jurisdiction; that schools and hospitals may lease land from the Chinese, thereby reserving land ownership; to grant a concession to Japan to build the Nan-Chang-Chao-Chow-Fu railway, if Great Britain consents to the release of China from the negotiations begun concerning this railroad two years ago. The Japanese claim they requested the concession for this railroad in 1907.

China's Three Stipulations.

The three stipulations China made to the demands in the nature of counter proposals last Sunday were not withdrawn by China. These were that China asked the right to participate in an international conference for a rearrangement of the altered status of Shantung; indemnity for the losses incurred in consequence of the Tsing-Tau campaign and the restoration of the status of Shantung as before the war.

It is said that the Chinese government has resolved to communicate with the United States, Great Britain, Russia and France, on receipt of the ultimatum, and that the nature of this communication will depend on the nature of the ultimatum.

TIME LIMIT EXPIRES SUNDAY.

Tokio, May 6.—Official announcement was made here this afternoon that Japan has sent an ultimatum to China.

The Kokumin Shimbun states that in its ultimatum Japan stipulates that China must accept unconditionally the Japanese demands.

The newspaper says in an extra edition that this was decided upon by the imperial council.

It is understood that the Japanese ultimatum demands acceptance by China of the Japanese demands within a time limit which expires at 6 p. m. of Sunday, May 9.

JAP DEMANDS SCORED BY BRITISH PAPER.

London, May 6.—The Daily News today says editorially:

"It would not be easy to parallel such demands from one power to another as Japan has made on China. In many respects they are more stringent than the Austrian demands on Serbia, which led to the European war.

"China has done nothing to incur such a penalty. She offered no menace to Japan, and she wanted only to enjoy her own liberties in her own way.

"If China had a military nation she never would have been thus challenged. She had neither the will nor the power to take an unfriendly and irreconcilable course toward her powerful neighbor, and it is grotesque to suggest that she is responsible for the crisis.

"It will be the last and the most bitter tragedy of this war if one of its consequences be that an unoffending nation whose independence and integrity the Anglo-Japanese alliance has guaranteed is to be despoiled by one of the signatories of that alliance."

JAPANESE CIVILIANS FLEE FROM MUKDEN.

Mukden, May 6.—(Via Pekin.)—Japanese consular orders have resulted in a general flight of Japanese from Mukden. The value of a gold yen has increased thirty silver cents and a rich harvest was reaped by exchange brokers. All Japanese except a few bankers and railway officials now have left.

All classes of Chinese view the exodus with stolid indifference, not insulting or molesting in any way the persons leaving the city. Although the natives are deeply perturbed, the city remains quiet.

Japanese troops occupy strategic positions in Mukden, while Chinese soldiers are reported to be moving into position south of the city. Many of the residents in that district are coming north.

Hankow, May 6.—(Via Pekin.)—The Japanese barracks here have been

U. S. TO INSIST ON RIGHTS IN CHINA

America Reiterates Adherence to Open Door Policy and Maintenance of Empire's Territorial Integrity

Washington, May 6.—The silence consistently maintained by the United States with reference to the Japanese-Chinese negotiations since they began nearly four months ago was broken tonight by the issuance of a statement by Secretary Bryan explaining the American government's position.

The statement was prepared earlier in the day after consultation with President Wilson. While press reports had told of Japan's decision to send an ultimatum to China, no official information had been received to confirm this tonight.

The American government in its pronouncement in effect reiterates its adherence to the open door policy and the maintenance of the territorial integrity of China, and points out that there has been "no abatement of its interest in the welfare and progress of China." The "sole interest" of the United States is declared to be that the negotiations between Japan and China "may be concluded in a manner satisfactory to both nations," and thus contribute to "the peace of the world."

Ready to Mediate.

The statement was interpreted in some quarters as meaning that while no tender of good offices would be made by the Washington government, the services of the United States were at the disposal of both countries should they desire the assistance of any third power to bring about a diplomatic settlement of the questions at issue.

Viscount Chinda, the Japanese ambassador, and Kai Fu Shah, the Chinese minister, sought separate interviews with Mr. Bryan late today, but declined to discuss the object of their visits. It is believed they were shown copies of the statement of the American position.

The text of the statement follows:

"In order that there may be no misunderstanding of the position of the United States in reference to the negotiations pending between Japan and China the following announcement is made:

"At the beginning of negotiations the Japanese government confidentially informed this government of the matters which were under discussion, and accompanied the information by the assurance that Japan had no intention of interfering with either the political independence or territorial integrity of China, and that nothing that she proposed would discriminate against other powers having treaties with China, or interfere with the 'open door' policy to which all the leading nations are committed.

Holds to Treaty Rights.

"This government not only has no thought of surrendering any of its treaty rights with China, but it has never been asked by either Japan or China to make any surrender of these rights. There is no abatement of its interest in the welfare and progress of China, and its sole interest in the present negotiations is that they may be concluded in a manner satisfactory to both nations, and that the terms of the agreement will not only contribute to the prosperity of both of these great Oriental empires, but maintain that cordial relationship so essential to the future of both, and to the peace of the world."

No remarks accompanied the statement, nor was there any further explanation of the purpose of its issuance at this time.

It was noted in many quarters, however, that the United States, by pointing out that it had no intention of surrendering treaty rights with China, might be endeavoring to dissipate the notion that has existed in some parts of the Far East that the United States would remain entirely passive with respect to any treaties of the United States and China which might be violated by acceptance by some of the Japanese demands.

Officials have declined to reveal what

TENTH ST. SCHOOL NEEDS ARE SHOWN

Finance Committee Convinced That Request for $15,000 for Improvements Should Be Granted.

After a careful personal investigation Thursday members of the council finance committee declared they were convinced that the request of patrons of the Tenth street school for $15,000 for improvements should be granted, and that the proposed open-air school rooms should be built to take care of the pupils next fall.

The committee was directed through the building by Miss Ella Dunlap, the principal, and L. N. Landrum, assistant superintendent of education, who pointed out the crowded condition of the rooms; the cracking and falling plastering, the insanitary conditions of the toilets and the need of artificial lighting.

While the committee was at the school the afternoon classes began to assemble for their studies, since all the 577 pupils enrolled cannot be accommodated at the morning session.

One of the committee asked a crowd of children how many of them would rather attend an afternoon session under the double session system than attend the morning session. Only one child held up her hand. Four of the six grades are forced to attend classes at the afternoon session.

"We are already wondering what to do with so many of the children begging for seats in the outdoor study quarters the patrons are asking for," said Miss Dunlap. "I have told them we will probably have to draw straws for places."

Alderman Armistead, a member of the party, said the Lee street school outdoor quarters had proven very popular and that the children had improved in health and were able to do better work in their studies.

Chairman Farlinger, of the finance committee, said there was no use denying the need of more room and an auditorium for the school, and the finance committee will no doubt include in the June money sheet to be prepared this month $15,000 for these improvements.

PFITZER KILLED; TWO BADLY HURT

L. E. Lyons and E. A. Grubbs Injured When Automobile Turns Turtle Near Bainbridge.

Bainbridge, Ga., May 6.—(Special.)—J. E. Pfitzer was killed, L. E. Lyons badly hurt about the head and body and E. A. Grubb slightly hurt near here today when the automobile driven by Lyons overturned.

All the men are government veterinarians stationed here by the bureau of animal industry at the station for eradication of hog cholera.

The machine, which was going at a good speed, left the road and in the effort to get it back to the driveway, a rise on the side overturned it completely.

Ducks Between Seats.

Dr. Grubb escaped by seeing the car turn and ducking between front and rear seats.

Pfitzer was crushed, but lived several minutes.

The party was found after about twenty minutes when escaping gasoline had already rendered Lyons unconscious. Grubb was in the road apparently trying to locate someone to help him lift the car. Lyons, before losing consciousness, begged someone to look for Pfitzer, saying "Pfitz seems to be badly hurt."

Cincinnati Man.

The dead man was a resident of Cincinnati, where the body will be sent tonight. He was an Eagle, a Knight of Columbus and an Elk, the latter order being in charge of the local arrangements.

Lyons is from Louisville, Ohio.

Grubb is a native of Minnesota.

The bureau of animal industry has ordered Dr. Hurleman here from Athens to take charge of the station and continue the work.

Beauty Contest Ends Saturday Evening at 6 O'Clock Sharp; Candidates Are Working Hard

They're off at top-speed, those busy contestants in The Constitution-Universal's Beauty contest, the winner of which is to take a free trip to Universal City, the San Diego fair and the world's exposition at San Francisco.

Interest and activity in the contest are at fever heat. The contest closes Saturday night at 6 o'clock, and the winner will be announced Sunday morning, June 16. The lucky girl will embark within the next day or so for New York, where she goes to join the big party of girls from other states who are to make the tour.

The journey will require at least twenty-two days, and will traverse more than half of the continent, carrying the winning girls over the most interesting cities and scenic points in America. Small detours will be made to famous spots, and at every big city along the route, including Chicago, Denver and points in New Mexico and the far west, elaborate entertainments and celebrations will be given.

Many Souvenirs.

Souvenirs from some of the biggest manufacturing firms in the country will be given to the girls aboard the monster special train that will carry the jubilant party across the continent. For example, Marjorie Benton Cooke, author of "Bambi," is going to contribute an autographed volume of this book to each girl. Colgate & Co. will present them with handsome sets of toilet articles; the International Handkerchief company have added a dozen dainty handkerchiefs for each passenger aboard the train; the Famous Players Souvenir company are giving to each girl a half-dozen "Mary Fuller" silver teaspoons.

There will be music and dancing on board, and, in most of the big cities, dances and theater parties, as well as other forms of attractive entertainment, will be given the bevy of beauties on board the Universal's big special train. Joseph Rosenthal, of M. Rosenthal & Son, is presenting a beautiful loving cup to the girl chosen as the most beautiful girl in the United States, who will be selected from the list of winning contestants.

ESTER ROSS.

To Miss Ester Ross, native of Arizona and daughter of the city of Prescott, will go the honor of christening the battleship Arizona when that monster of the deep slides from the ways in the Brooklyn navy yard on June 19. The appointment of Miss Ross was announced by Governor Hunt. Miss Ross is a typical representative of Arizona's younger generation of women. She was 17 years old on November 9, 1914, and has lived all her life in Prescott. A committee of fifty leading citizens from all parts of Arizona has been appointed by Governor Hunt to attend the launching, and a special train will run from Phoenix to New York.

Pathetic Plea Made By Loving Daughter For Her Aged Father

"I Love Him; I Am Willing to Die for Him, and I Want Him," Young Woman Tells Recorder.

"Judge, I want my father. He may have been drinking, he may be crazy, and it may be true that he tried to commit suicide, but he is still my dear old father. I love him. I am willing to die for him, and I want him."

Such was the pathetic plea made by Mrs. B. B. Farmer, of 33 Colley avenue, a young married woman, in the police court Thursday afternon when her gray-haired father was arraigned for trial.

J. B. Echols, a veteran of the confederate army, had been arrested for drinking to excess. When on his way to the police station he tried to commit suicide by cutting his throat with a knife. He had bravely faced the bullets of the union soldiers, but he could not face trouble, distress and disgrace.

Spectacle of Despair.

He stood in court with his clothing dyed red with the blood that had flowed from the wound across his throat. He was a spectacle of as absolute despair as was ever seen in the police court.

"I am just tired of life," was all he said.

But his faithful and loyal daughter was there by his side to beg and plead for him.

The recorder did not wish to let him go free because he feared the old man, in his desperate condition, might do harm to either himself or his family.

"I am not afraid of him," pleaded the loving daughter, "drunk or crazy, I know he will not harm me. I want to take him out of prison and carry him home with me, where I can minister to him. I am willing to have him placed in the insane asylum, but all I want now is to have him under my care."

The recorder was touched by the plea, but he declined to let the old man out of prison.

"You can let him remain in jail," he said, "where he can have medical attention and then take out a writ of lunacy."

"I Want My aFther."

"I want my poor old father with me," again pleaded the daughter. "If he was your old father, judge, wouldn't you want to take him home with you?"

Tears were in the daughter's eyes, and her voice trembled with emotion.

The recorder hesitated, and said:

"I will think the matter over."

Then seeing that he had but one thing to do, he added:

"I am sorry for you and for your father, but the best thing for him and for you is to let him remain in custody until he can be sent to the asylum."

The old man was led away by an officer, while the daughter looked longingly and lovingly after him with misty eyes, and left the courtroom weeping.

FIGHT ON LIQUOR TAXES.

Irishmen Force Postponement of Chancellor's Plan.

London, May 6.—Determined opposition by the Irish nationalists and the independent Irish nationalists, who joined forces today against Chancellor Lloyd-George's new liquor taxes, forced the government to postpone until next week the second reading of the bill embodying the chancellor's plan.

Both Premier Asquith and Mr. Lloyd-George pleaded the necessity of expeditious action, but the Irish members insisted that the bill should not be carried further until they were assured that the government had decided to abandon the supertaxes.

Mr. Lloyd-George announced that his negotiations with the liquor interests were making good progress, and that he hoped an arrangement satisfactory to all parties would be reached within twenty-four hours.

PLANS HIGHER TAX FOR SOCIAL CLUBS

Alderman Thompson Will Introduce Resolution at Next Meeting of Council Providing Readjustment.

Social clubs and other organizations not operated for profit that have had the advantage of a nominal tax rating for several years may shortly be forced to pay nearly double their present tax if council acts favorably on a resolution to be introduced at the next meeting by Alderman Albert Thomson.

A complete revision of the assessments of these institutions is contemplated and the ordinance providing that they be assessed at a "nominal" rate may be amended with material changes.

Alderman Thomson made a report to the aldermanic board Thursday to the effect that many of the social clubs are paying on from 18 to 40 per cent of their actual property holdings, when the law provides for 60 per cent. To comply with the letter of the law would mean to double the taxes of some of these institutions.

The proposal of Alderman Thomson was made after the aldermanic board failed to concur in a resolution adopted by council providing that the Order of Red Men be allowed to pay taxes on only 25 per cent of their holdings.

"The intent of the ordinance is to allow a 'nominal' tax rate because these institutions are valuable assets for the city," said Mr. Thomson. "To my mind we have some millionaires that are just as valuable and we had just as well allow them to pay a 'nominal' rate."

Mr. Thomson stated that he would introduce at the next meeting of council a measure calling for a complete revision of the assessment of many of the social clubs and other institutions listed as being of a benevolent nature.

Ad-less Town

Can you imagine a city where no one ever advertised anything?

Can you picture the business stillness—the all pervading quiet?

Pretty hard to visualize in this age of "up and at them."

Advertising has become the very vitals of business activity. And its power is most highly shown in Constitution advertising.

Germans and Austrians Claim Many Successes In Gigantic Offensive

RUSSIANS RETREAT BEFORE AUSTRIANS

Vienna Reports Austrians Have Crossed the Wisloka River, and That Tarnow Has Been Captured.

Vienna, May 6.—(Via London, May 7, 12:30 a. m.)—The Austrian southern wing has crossed the Wisloka river. The Russians are retreating eastward of the Lupkow pass.

An official communication issued this evening by the war office says:

"At 4 o'clock this afternoon the last Russian positions on the heights east of the Dunajec and the Biala rivers were gained by our troops.

"Tarnow was captured by us at 10 o'clock this morning."

German Advance Unchecked.

Vienna, May 6.—(Via London, 11:09 p. m.)—The strategic achievement of rolling up a hostile battle front by a flanking attack, of which Chancellorsville is one of the few successful examples in modern history, is in full progress in west Galicia. Favored by continued good weather, mile after mile of the Russian Carpathian front has been rendered untenable by the steady, unchecked Austro-German advance.

The Austrian cavalry and infantry followed the Gorlice turnpike and have already reached the Wisloka river. The supporting artillery dropped shells on the road from Semigrod to Jaslo, one of the principal lines of the retreat for the Russians in the Dukla region.

The Russian forces have been in full retreat since dawn of May 5, and are being closely followed by the Austrian Carpathian army, according to official advices reaching here. More than 50,000 prisoners already have been captured by the Austrians in west Galicia.

Field Marshal von Hoetzendorff's plan is working out with precise regularity with respect to this section of the front. Headquarters expresses confidence that the principal portion of the Russian army, under General Radko Dimitrieff, which is attempting to defend positions west of Lupkow pass, cannot make good its retreat.

Cannot Avoid Capture.

Detachments of this army may work their way out, but it is declared the bulk of the army, with the heavy artillery and baggage, scarcely can avoid capture, in view of Field Marshal Hoetzendorff's rapid advance through the Gorlice breach in the lines.

Progress on the northern half of the front is slower. The Russians are holding desperately to Tarnow and Wal mountain—a fortified crest 1,500 to 2,000 feet high between the Biala and Dunajec rivers—to enable them to get quantities of stores accumulated behind Tarnow away and cover the retirement of the armies to the southward.

The question as to whether the Russians can make a successful stand on the line of the Wisloka river is the important one from the Austro-American military viewpoint. If they cannot the breach in the Russian line is considered complete and the situation for the Russian Carpathian armies undoubtedly would be critical.

The heaviest artillery was employed in these operations. The 42 centimeter mortars in action, however, were not the noted German guns, but of Austrian make. They were designed originally for coast defense purposes, but have been found exceedingly valuable for land warfare. They fire projectiles 650 pounds heavier than the German mortar, and are understood to be comparatively mobile and quickly set up.

The effect of these mortars during the artillery preparations for battle is described as overpowering. Shells from them have reached the supply depots behind Tarnow. The Austrians also are equipped with highly effective smaller howitzers of a new type which were put into the field during the later stage of the war.

IMPROVEMENT BONDS VOTED BY EAST LAKE

$30,000 Will Be Spent for Schools, Water, Sewers and Streets.

With votes to spare, East Lake citizens yesterday carried a bond issue for $30,000 for public improvements, and work will begin as soon as the issue is sold. Out of a registration of 68 votes, 62 were cast. Only 46 were needed to make the necessary two-third required.

The managers announced the following vote on the several items: Water bonds, 51 favorable and 11 against; school bonds, 55 favorable and 7 against; sewer bonds, 51 favorable and 11 against; street bonds, 53 favorable and 10 against.

Mayor Thomas D. Paine stated that he was gratified at the outcome of the election, and wished to thank the city aldermen and others who had assisted him in securing favorable action on the issue.

TWO-YEAR-OLD GIRL DIES BY DRINKING PATENT FLY POISON

Rockmart, Ga., May 6.—(Special.)—The 2-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Sherrill, proprietors of the Commercial hotel of this place, died this afternoon as a result of drinking poison used in a patent fly-killer.

Teutonic Allies Are Either Attacking or Being Attacked Practically Along Entire Battle Fronts in East and West.

RUSS FORCES DRIVEN OVER WISLOKA RIVER AND LOSE DUKLA PASS

The French Deny Berlin's Claims of Victories in the West, and Claim German Offensive There Has Been Definitely Checked.

London, May 6.—The Germans and Austrians are putting forth an effort the extent of which never has been approached in the history of war.

Throughout virtually the entire length of the eastern front, the Teutonic allies are engaged with the Russians, while in the west, in addition to their attacks around Ypres, the Germans are on the offensive at many points. At other places they are being attacked by the French, British and Belgians.

Far up in the Russian Baltic provinces, heretofore untouched by the war, the Germans are attempting to advance toward Libau and Riga; on the East Prussian frontier they are engaged in a series of battles, and with a big gun are bombarding at long range, as they did Dunkirk, the Russian fortress of Grodno; in central Poland they have had to defend themselves against a Russian attack; in western Galicia they are attempting with all their strength to smash the Russian flank and compel the Russians to abandon the Carpathian passes, which they gained at such cost during the wnlter.

HANDS OF GERMANS ON DUKLA PASS.

In this western Galician battle the Germans claim they have made a still greater advance and to have crossed the Wisloka river, well to the east of the Dunajec river, which until a few days ago formed part of the Russian front, and to have put their hands firmly on Dukla pass.

In conjunction with this attack from the west the Austrians are attempting to drive the Russians from Lupkow pass, farther to the east, and with success, according to the German accounts. In all the Germans claim to have taken 40,000 Russian prisoners since the offensive was undertaken last Saturday night. The Austrians put the number at more than 50,000 and express the belief that the whole Russian third army will be destroyed.

These reports show that the Austro-German blow is meeting with the greatest success on the northern slopes of the western Carpathians, for towards the Upper Vistula the Russians appear to be in their old positions.

Despite the claims of the Austrians and Germans, the Russian representatives in the European capitals reiterate that the victory has been greatly exaggerated and the public is waiting to hear what Grand Duke Nicholas, commander-in-chief of the Russian forces, has to say about it.

BRITISH RECAPTURE TRENCHES LOST.

The Germans also claim a series of successes in the west. They report that they are continuing their progress southeast of Ypres, which, however, is hardly borne out by Field Marshal French, who says that the British have recaptured more of the trenches which they had lost on Hill No. 60, and that fighting is still progressing in that neighborhood, while elsewhere the Germans have shown no disposition to attack.

There are reports that the Germans are about to make another determined effort to take Ypres, which is considered the key to the French coast ports. The Pall Mall Gazette says:

"It is folly to say that Ypres has more of political than of military importance," and adds:

"The Germans would be more encouraged by success at Ypres than by anything since the fall of Antwerp. If such an event occurs we must instantly recognize it and admit it to be a defeat, and a grave one. In place of a party cabinet, a national ministry ought then to be formed and a new military levy made. Happily, there is yet no need to anticipate a retreat from Ypres, much less a German march to Dunkirk and Calias."

CLAIMS OF GERMANY DENIED BY FRANCE.

Other German claims relate to successes in the Woevre, where, the Germans say, in an attack along the north side of St. Mihiel wedge, they took upwards of 2,000 prisoners and that they repulsed French attacks on the southern section of the wedge near Flirey. This, as usual during the last few days, entirely disagrees with the French account of the actions.

Of the Dardanelles operations up to Sunday Premier Asquith gave the house of commons some news today, although the number of troops landed was withheld. As 29,000 were landed the first day and the disembarkation continned for a week, while the French have also joined the British and Australasians on the Gallipoli peninsula, it is apparent that the force is a formidable one.

The premier, while issuing a warning that the casualties were heavy, pays a glowing tribute to the troops, through whose exertions progress toward the narrows has been made.

An Athens dispatch says that the Turks again have been defeated. Petrograd dispatches report that further defeats have been inflicted on the Turks on the Turco-Persian frontier, near Dilman, and near Olti, on the Caucasian border.

2,000 FRENCHMEN CAPTURED IN WOOD.

Berlin, May 6.—(Via London.)—In the German official statement issued today the announcement is made that German soldiers forced the French troops to evacuate their positions in the Ailly wood and captured more than 2,000 Frenchmen. The statement says that the number of Frenchmen killed was extremely heavy, and that they also lost two cannon and a number of machine guns and mine-throwers.

The statement follows:

"Over the whole front artillery duels have taken place. We made further progress near Ypres (Belgium) and have taken the Van Helpe farm and another farm near the Messines-Ypres railway. We made 100 prisoners and took 15 machine guns.

"In the forest district to the west of Combres, we made an advance and captured four French officers and 135 men. We also took four machine guns and mine-throwers.

"In our attack yesterday in the Ailly wood we achieved our objective by forcing the enemy to evacuate his positions. More than 2,000 Frenchmen, among them 21 officers, were made prisoners. We also took two cannon and several machine guns and mine-throwers. The number of Frenchmen killed was extremely heavy.

French Driven Back.

"The enemy attacked us in the region north of Flirey and near Croix des Carmes. North of the former place, the enemy pushed forward as far as our trenches. At one point in this sector fighting continues; at all other points the French were beaten back. In the Vosges an advance against our position north of Steinbrueck was repulsed.

"In the eastern theater: Southwest of Mitau, south of Szadow and east of Rossiona (Russian-Courland) fighting continued.

"Northeast and southwest of Kalwarya our positions were attacked several times yesterday by strong Russian forces. All these attacks failed with very heavy losses to the enemy.

"The enemy advanced against our bridge heads on the Pilica river without success.

"Bombs were dropped on the fortified town of Grodno during last night.

"In the war area to the east of Tarnow and to the north of that place as far as the Vistula river, and on the right bank of the Dunajec river, fighting continued far into the night. The number of prisoners so far taken has reached to more than 40,000. It is worthy of note that this is the Russian front.

"In the Beskid mountains, on the Lupkow pass road, an attack is being made by the forces under General of Cavalry von der Urwitz simultaneously with an attack made by the Austro-Hungarian army, which is co-operating with the Germans. These attacks are progressing favorably."

Hands on Dukla Pass.

Reuter's version of the last Berlin official communication contains additional details of the fighting in the eastern zone. After the statement in the original communication that "the enemy advanced against our bridgeheads on the Pilica river with success," the Reuter version says:

"We bombarded the fortress of Grodno (about 150 miles northeast of Warsaw) last night.

"In western Galicia rear guards of the retreating enemy offered a desperate resistance to the allied troops under General August von Mackensen, which broke down on the heights on the left bank of the Wisloka river above and below the mouth of the Ropa river.

"We not only forced a crossing of the Wisloka at several points, but firmly put our hands on the Dukla pass, the road and the place."

REVERSES ADMITTED BY THE RUSSIANS.

Petrograd, May 6.—(Via London.)—The following official communication was issued today:

"An engagement took place near Libau (on the Baltic) with German torpedo boats.

"There were skirmishes, which resulted favorably for us south of Mitau (Courland), and near the village of Besiagola.

"On the right bank of the Orzica on the evening of the 4th we repulsed an impetuous attack by the Germans which had been prepared for by a fierce fire lasting an hour and a half. We inflicted heavy losses on the enemy.

"East of the Mlawa railway we succeeded by a surprise attack in the capture of the farm, which still remains in our hands. The Germans left about a thousand dead.

"All is quiet on the left bank of the Vistula.

"In Galicia the battle between the Vistula and the Carpathians was continued yesterday with great obstinacy. Covered by heavy artillery fire, the enemy continued to concentrate forces on the right bank of the Dunajec. The enemy's main efforts were directed toward Biecz and Jaslo.

"Our troops were severely tried, owing to the superiority of the enemy's heavy artillery; but the enemy also suffered heavily under our shrapnel and rifle-fire when he attempted to attack.

"In the direction of Stry Tuesday we developed our success in positions on Mount Makouwka. The number of prisoners we made in this action amounts to 2,000 men, including 40 officers. The retreating enemy was thrown back a considerable distance. Along the course of the Upper Lomnica we also gained some successes yesterday morning."

EVERYTHING CALM, FRENCH REPORT.

Paris, May 6.—The official communication issued by the war office this evening says:

"Today was calm. There is nothing to report."

The French war office this afternoon gave out this report:

"To the north of Ypres we repulsed with facility a night attack made by the Germans from Steenstraete.

"To the south of Ypres the Germans yesterday, at a point near Zwartelen, attacked the trenches of Hill No. 60 occupied last month by British troops. Their very violent onslaught, during the course of which they again made use of asphyxiating gases, made them masters in the beginning of this position, but our allies subsequently delivered a counter attack and recaptured a portion of the trenches previously lost.

"In the forest of Ailly the counter attack delivered by us toward the end of the day made slight progress, and we recaptured a portion of the position where the Germans had succeeded in gaining a footing in the morning. During the night the Germans delivered a counter attack against our position at Malmelon, to the east of Sillakerwasen, the summit of which they reoccupied. All the remainder of our gain in the direction of the River Fecht has been consolidated and maintained."

FIGHTING CONTINUES ON HILL NO. 60.

London, May 6.—The British war office tonight issued the following communication:

"There is nothing to report on the British front except the recapture by us yesterday evening of more of our lost trenches on Hill No. 60, southeast of Ypres, and that fighting still continues in that locality.

"Elsewhere the enemy has shown no disposition to attack."

REPORT CONFLICT ON DARDANELLES.

London, May 6.—(4:20 p. m.)—The operations in the Dardanelles are being pressed forward under highly satisfactory conditions. Premier Asquith told the house of commons this afternoon.

Constantinople, May 5.—(Via Wireless to Berlin and London, May 6, 7:59 a. m.)—The following official statement regarding the operations in the Dardanelles was issued this afternoon by the Turkish war office:

"The unfavorable situation of the enemy in the Dardanelles remains unchanged. Reports from Athens regarding the occupation of Gallipoli and Nagara by landing forces are untrue.

"The Gallipoli peninsula is entirely at our disposal for military movements. The enemy holds only two points on the coast—Seddul Bahr and Ariburnu—thanks to the constant firing of his ships. The enemy is unable to make any moves against the Turkish encircling forces.

"The Asiatic coast has been freed of our enemies."

BERLIN EXPECTS MORE VICTORIES

Berlin, May 6.—(Via London.)—Military successes of the past week have visibly affected popular feeling in Berlin. Operations in the Russian Baltic province of Courland, in Galicia and in Belgium, indicate a German offensive on a large scale and are accepted as presaging even greater events.

It is understood in well informed quarters that the German troops in Courland now are nearing the port of Libau, which probably will be attacked by land and sea. Field Marshal von Hindenburg himself is in command there. His design appears to be to take Libau, and probably Riga as well, and use these ports as bases for harassing Russian communications with Petrograd.

The Russians already have sent reinforcements from Kovno for resisting these operations, the results of which soon must be apparent.

The Russians also are attempting to resist the Austro-German advance in Galicia and have brought up reinforcements from the Carpathians. Information received here, however, indicates that the Russians are being swept along before the Teutonic allies, or else captured. Austrian reports say that a general Russian retreat is in progress, extending to the south of Dukla pass, where weeks ago attacks on an impregnable Austrian front exhausted the initiative of the invaders.

Berlin Watches Galicia.

Further developments in Galicia are awaited here with breathless interest. It is believed events there may give a decisive turn to the entire eastern campaign. The view held here is that the whole Russian position in the Carpathians now has become precarious. It is understood that strong pressure is being brought to bear on the retreating Russians by the forces of General von Mackenzen and Field Marshal Baron Hoetzendorf, which are advancing from the west.

The operation of the Austro-German force now threatening the Russian lines between the Dunajec and Biala rivers is regarded as a first-class performance, from a German military standpoint, particularly as it is the result of a frontal attack against strongly fortified positions. The Austrians crossed the Dunajec near its confluence with the Vistula, although the Russians were strongly protected behind a dike on the eastern bank. The Austrians, behind a dike on the west shore, advanced pontoons by night, cutting through the dike and depositing the pontoons among high reeds along the shore. They refilled and resodded the cut each night. In this way a sufficient number of pontoons were concealed on three nights for effecting a crossing. When these preparations had been completed, a terrific artillery bombardment enabled the Austrians to bridge the stream with comparatively little loss.

Russians Mowed Down.

The Austro-German attack near Gorlice is described as an unparalleled artillery performance. The Russians believed their position impregnable. The artillery of the allies, from 42-centimeters down, so completely overwhelmed the Russians, however, that the Austro-German infantry was able to take the opposing positions at the first rush.

These operations were veiled by a heavy bombardment of Russian positions along the Nida river, the Germans and Austrians bringing up a powerful force for the great push eastward toward Lemberg.

The Russians still hold one strong position on a range of hills more than 1,000 feet high near Tuchow, but this position is threatened from both the north and south.

It generally is believed in Berlin that operations in Galicia during the next ten days will yield big results.

The situation at Ypres, Belgium, where the Grand Duke of Wurttenburg is commanding, also is considered highly promising. It is believed here the British and French hardly will be able to hold the town of Ypres for another week. The Germans are said to have gained nearly three miles during the last few days, their opponents withdrawing steadily. Advices from the Belgian front say this retreat in places is a disorderly one, and that numerous dead or wounded soldiers are being left on the ground.

SAVANNAH COTTON SHIP IS DISCHARGING CARGO

London, May 6.—The American sailing ship Carolyn, from Savannah, March 30, for Rotterham, is discharging her cotton cargo at Leith. Part of it has been purchased by the British government; the remainder goes to a prize court on the claim that it was destined for Germany.

Asquith Highly Satisfied With Progress Against Turks

British Troops Displayed Unsurpassed Courage and Skill, Premier Tells House of Commons.

London, May 6.—The operations in the Dardanelles are being pressed forward under highly satisfactory conditions, Premier Asquith told the house of commons this afternoon.

The premier said, in part:

"At daybreak of April 25 the landing occurred, the troops making use of six landing places. By nightfall 29,000 men had been disembarked in the face of a fierce opposition by infantry and artillery entrenched behind successive lines of wire entanglements.

"The leading troops of the 29th division were held up all day to the west of Seddul-Bahr, but at sunset they succeeded in a fine attack along the heights which made possible the taking of a good position covering the disembarkation of the remainder of the division.

"The landing brigade of the Australian and New Zealand corps went ashore at Gaba Tepe at 4:30 o'clock in the morning in complete silence. The enemy opened a heavy fire at point-blank range, but the beach was rushed wtih good effect and the attack carried out with the utmost dash up the slope.

"French forces effected a landing at Kum Kale, and advanced with great gallantry. Every report speaks of the magnificent co-operation of the naval forces. I regret the casualties were very heavy, including the death of Brigadier General Napier.

"During April 26 the disembarkation continued. The troops ashore were subjected to continuous and determined attacks from the enemy, but these in every case were repulsed with heavy losses. The 29th division, under command of General Hunter, with great valor carried the Turkish position at Seddul Bahr, which consisted of rocky ravines, ruined houses and wire entanglements.

"By evening of April 27, the 29th division was firmly established across the Gallipoli peninsula, having advanced two miles from the point of landing. They were joined by French troops who, having fulfilled the task of silencing the hostile batteries on the Asiatic coast, which interfered with the landing on the Gallipoli peninsula, had recrossed the straits. The Australian and New Zealand corps defeated every counter attack and steadily gained ground.

"The disembarkation continued April 28 and 29. By May 2 a further advance had been made by the French and British troops on the southern end of the peninsula, and the Australian and New Zealand corps had been reinforced by the royal naval division. The positions everywhere had been consolidated.

"In the successful performance of this, one of the most difficult operations of the war, a landing on an open beach in the face of determined opposition, the troops engaged displayed unsurpassed courage and skill.

"The operations are now being continued and pressed forward under highly satisfactory conditions."

BRITISH CAPTURE TIP OF PENINSULA AND WESTERN PART

London, May 6.—The Dardanelles correspondent of The Chronicle sends this dispatch under date of April 30:

"During the early fighting the Turkish positions ran from the crest above Maidos to the crest above Boghali. The allied forces were along the shore at the mouth of the valley and occupying the Zazmak valley.

"The allies extended their positions along the northern ridge, and the Turks' position on the southern ridge became extremely dangerous. On April 28 the point of interest was the southern tip of the peninsula, where forces were landed in Morto bay and north of Gaba Tepeh. During the forenoon these troops occupied the district extending a distance of about a mile and a half from the point of the peninsula.

"At midday allied batteries began a general advance. The Turks replied from positions a mile from Krithia, which the guns of the fleet had set afire earlier in the day. Just north of this village is Achibaba peak, 700 feet high, which dominates the region and is the chief obstacle to the allied advance. The Turks retreated gradually in that direction from their positions in the southern part of the peninsula.

"Before evening the allies had stretched their line across the peninsula, advancing another mile and a half, while the Turkish forces had retreated to the outskirts of blazing Krithia. By nightfall the town was virtually in the hands of the allies and the fleet was shelling Achibaba, preparatory to an attack on the positions there. The same afternoon there was activity also in the northern position, below Gaba Tepeh. Evidently good progress was made in throwing the force across the peninsula there with the object of commanding the narrows from the heights above.

"At this time a firm footing has been gained by the landing forces, which assures the allies' control of the tip of the peninsula and the entire western section."

The Turks, considerably reinforced, attacked the allies' camp at Krithia early Tuesday morning, but were repulsed, leaving 1,500 dead, according to advices from Mytilene received by the Exchange Telegraph company from its Athens correspondent. The allies have advanced into the interior, the dispatch says, and now occupy positions of great strategic importance.

A report from Tenedos says that British warships continued yesterday their bombardment of Turkish positions in the Dardanelles and also of Smyrna.

3 MORE VESSELS SUNK BY GERMAN SUBMARINES

London, May 6.—The schooner Earl of Latham has been sunk by a German submarine off Kinsale, Ireland. The crew, permitted to take the small boats, was rescued by a trawler.

The submarine fired nine shells at the schooner before she sank.

The trawler Strattor, of Grimsby, was sunk in the North sea yesterday by the gunfire of a German submarine. The crew was taken on board the submarine.

The steamer Cathay, from Copenhagen for Chinese ports, was sunk either by a mine or torpedo late last night in the North sea. She went down in twenty minutes. Her passengers and the members of her crew, totaling 43 persons, took to the small boats, and all were landed safely at Ramsgate today.

The Cathay was a Danish steamer of 2,586 tons, 296 feet long.

TURKS BADLY BEATEN IN FIGHT IN CAUCASUS

London, May 6.—A Petrograd dispatch to the Reuter Telegram company says:

"Details have been received here of the defeat by the Russians of a Turkish army corp in the Caucasus. An effort was made by 30,000 Turks under Djavid Pasha to invade the Dilman-Khori region, which the Russians occupied.

"The entire Turkish force was hurled against the Russian positions, but the Muscovites, although numerically inferior, held their ground. Each successive attack was received at the bayonet point. The Russians then began a counter attack and completely routed the exhausted Turks, who retired in disorder. The prisoners include the famous leader Sinko."

MARY ANTIN TELLS VALUE OF SCHOOLS

"Let Politics Creep Into Your Schools and Prosperity of Your City Is Destroyed," She Says.

One had but to hear the lecture of Miss Mary Antin before a large and enthusiastic audience at the Atlanta theater last evening on education and school houses to realize that if Atlanta wants to achieve the highest and best aims of civic greatness it must place the schools above all civic improvements.

Miss Antin was introduced by Rabbi David Marx.

Taking the education of the immigrants to this country as an example, she pointed out that education in the public schools was the cornerstone of American greatness.

Striking Statements.

Among the striking statements she made were:

"The more you spend for schools the less you will have to spend for police and jails."

"The fathers and mothers must organize if any city expects to get the full educational facilities that are needed."

"The time has arrived when any city fails to send all of its children to a public school it will cease to advance in civic prosperity."

"The worst political corruption is when politicians lay their hands on the public school system."

"Let politics creep into your schools and the prosperity of your city is doomed."

"When Atlanta or any other city fails to make the schools the first consideration it strikes at the very foundation of its growth."

"The public schools are the foundation of true Americanism."

Lectures at Columbia.

Mary Antin is a Russian Jewess. She is the wife of a Columbia university professor, and has herself lectured at Columbia university.

Through the school she found the light of liberty and freedom; freedom of politics and religion, with the same ideals taught to each and every child, the same chance given every child, and she understood the meaning of democracy, and grasped the chance she had. Though speaking not a word of English, she found herself led on, and before she had finished the grammar school course she had measured up with the native child, and made a record for scholarship.

This success accompanied her school career, and it was but sixteen years after she came to this country, she wrote one of the most noted book of the century, "The Promised Land." This book brought her into the public eye, and she has held her position there ever since. Her lectures, her magazine articles and her philosophy are illuminated by a patriotism that is dramatically inspiring, and her book is recognized as a public library textbook.

An Eloquent Speaker.

As a speaker she is unequaled in the mastery of her thought and its artistic expression.

On her arrival in Atlanta Miss Antin was met by Mrs. J. E. Sommerfield, president of the Atlanta council, Jewish Women; Mrs. Isaac Schoen, Miss Rhoda Kauffman, Mrs. Montag Selig, Mrs. David Marx, Mrs. Arthur Harris and Mrs. Victor Kriegshaber.

During her stay in the city she was the guest of Mrs. V. H. Kriegshaber.

She leaves Atlanta to lecture to the students at Tuskegee, Ala., on special invitation.

W. A. JAMES FACES TWO CHARGES TODAY

Recorder Will Investigate Difficulty With W. S. Griffin Today.

Attorney W. A. James, of Douglasville, Ga., will have two opportunities today to demonstrate his legal skill as the result of his connection with the Griffin estate in College Park, which he had represented in a legal capacity.

In the afternoon at 2:30 o'clock he is scheduled to appear before Recorder Johnson to answer the charge of carrying concealed weapons and engaging in a difficulty with W. S. Griffin on Alabama street, near Forsyth, and at night he goes on trial at College Park following his arrest Sunday night near the home of Mrs. E. E. Griffin, the mother of W. S. Griffin.

James was held on the complaint of the Griffins, who stated they believed he was seeking to get possession of some papers to which they said he was not entitled.

James, it is alleged, was seen near the residence, and the occupants of the home said they believed he was seeking an opportunity to secure some legal papers said to belong to Mrs. Griffin.

Town Marshal Wall, of College Park, said that James was arrested there, and spent the night in the College Park jail. Colonel Pen H. Brewster on Monday morning signed Mr. James' bond, according to the marshal.

The difficulty between Griffin and James was the result of this arrest, according to the story told by Griffin to the police. After a fistic encounter James, it is charged, drew a pistol, and this caused his arrest.

He was released last night on a $100 bond. Griffin, who was also arrested by Patrolman Gossett, was released pending trial before the recorder. He put up collateral of $10.75.

WOOD BLOCK PAVING FOR GRANT STREET

Aldermen Concur in Council's Action and Mayor Agrees to Sign Paper.

After taking the floor at the aldermanic meeting Thursday Councilman George F. Freeman, of the third ward, secured favorable action on the resolution providing for wood block paving on Grant street, which has been hanging fire for several weeks. The mayor has already agreed to sign the paper and the work is expected to begin within the next few weeks.

A delegation of property owners on Grant street appeared before the board to urge their claims and they declared they had been in the mud for five years and could get no relief from council. The money for bitulithic paving was appropriated for Grant street, but 99 per cent of the abutting property owners signed a petition asking for wood block and agreeing to pay the difference in cost.

Alderman C. C. McDonald, of the third, who had opposed wood block from the very first of the agitation agreed to the demands of the property owners, but predicted they would be dissatisfied after the work is done. Councilman Freeman was the only member of the third ward delegation who favored wood block and he fought it out both on the floor of council and before the aldermanic board.

The aldermanic board concurred in the action of council in granting an appropriation of $200 for the expenses of two members of the water works department to Cincinnati, Ohio, to attend the convention of the American Water Works association, to be held next week. General Manager Smith and Secretary St. John represented the department at the convention last year, but delegates have not been chosen for the 1915 convention.

ULTIMATUM SENT BY JAPS TO CHINA

prepared for a siege. Following the consul's advice many Japanese have left the city, although the Chinese appear wholly indifferent. Several prominent native residents were entertained at dinner last night by some of the leading Japanese citizens.

U. S. IS PETITIONED TO SUPPORT CHINA.

Washington, May 6.—An appeal by Christian Chinese students and business men in the United States for moral support for China in the present crisis was received today at the white house and was transmitted to the state department. It was signed by twelve Christian Chinese of New York, Philadelphia and Chicago and was addressed as well to leading religious bodies in America.

The appeal argues that public opinion in the United States alone can help China in her present situation and contends that Japan's demands should have been reserved for presentation at the end of the war as part of the peace proposals.

AMERICA TO INSIST ON RIGHTS IN CHINA

was said in recent notes sent to Japan or China by the United States.

Strong Hope for Peace.

It has been understood for some time, however, that the United States thought the way would be cleared by mutual concessions and compromises to modification of the Japanese demands so that they would not contravene the Root-Takahira agreement for the open door in the Far East or treaties between the United States and China. The belief has prevailed that the negotiations would end satisfactorily, and that the talk of drastic measures merely was circulated for its influence on the Chinese plenipotentiaries. There still was nothing to indicate tonight that the United States government had lost hope of a friendly settlement.

The Japanese ambassador referred as he was leaving the department today to "exaggerated reports." From this and other information available in Japanese quarters the impression was gained that so far as the Japanese embassy was concerned it did not anticipate any armed clash in the Far East.

There was wide speculation as to the conferences between Secretary Bryan and the diplomatic representatives of the two nations at odds. Both the Japanese ambassador and Chinese minister were understood to have cabled their governments after talking with Secretary Bryan.

GEORGIA EDUCATORS GATHER IN MACON

Gov.-Elect Harris, Superintendent Brittain and Others Address Association.

Macon, Ga., May 6.—(Special.)—Fully 700 teachers and educators from all over Georgia had arrived in Macon this evening and with several hundred Macon people attended the opening exercises of the Georgia Educational association held tonight at the city auditorium. By tomorrow morning it is anticipated that the number of visitors will be swelled to well above 1,000. Last year there were over 800 teachers registered.

The exercises tonight were presided over by Professor J. C. Wardlaw, of Athens, president of the association, and addresses of welcome were delivered by Mayor Bridges Smith, on behalf of the city; Dr. C. R. Jenkins, on behalf of Wesleyan college, and Dr. W. L. Pickard, on behalf of Mercer university. The response was made by Superintendent J. C. Harris, of Rome.

Governor Harris Speaks.

A survey of the educational conditions in Georgia was given by M. L. Brittain, state superintendent of education, while Governor-elect Nat E. Harris, spoke generally of the betterment of educational facilities throughout the state.

Business sessions of the convention will be held tomorrow morning and evening and Saturday morning, with departmental meetings at Mercer tomorrow afternoon.

State Superintendent Brittain in his address scored the campaign of abuse by certain politicians against the cause of education in Georgia, declaring, however, that those working for educational uplift had come out unscathed. He urged the enactment of a compulsory education law, a law placing women on the boards of education and the prompt payment of school teachers. Replying to the advocates of home-made text books, the state superintendent said:

"We would be in a bad fix if we depended entirely on books manufactured within the borders of our own state."

Governor-elect Harris declared that when he becomes governor he is going to stand behind the state superintendent of education in everything that he does to better educational conditions in this state. He said that when he is gone he wants to be remembered as "the old man who did everything he could to lift Georgia out of her present state of illiteracy."

Teachers Entertained.

It will be the busiest day the teachers have ever known at one of their conventions for, in addition to the business meeting, Macon has arranged a series of entertainments. At 4:30 o'clock a playground festival in which 500 children will participate will be given on Coleman's Hill, and at 5:30 there will be a concert at Wesleyan, followed by a luncheon in honor of the visiting teachers.

Today will be observed generally as a holiday in the schools throughout the state.

Waycross Elks have made elaborate preparations for the entertainment of the visitors, and a great time is promised the Best People on Earth.

RAILROADS TO CHANGE THEIR BILLS OF LADING

To Alter Terms and Conditions to Meet the Cummins Amendment.

Washington, May 6.—Southeastern railroads have filed with the interstate commerce commission a supplement to their official tariff classifications in which they make it clear that they propose to change the terms and conditions of their bills of lading to meet conditions under the so-called Cummins amendment to the railroad rate act. This amendment forbids a carrier to limit its liability to a shipper in any way and becomes effective June 3.

The supplement announces changes in the rules governing shipments so that property carried not subject to the terms and conditions of a new bill of lading, under which the risk will not be increased, "will be at the carrier's liability," and charged for at rates 10 per cent higher than the rates shown in published tariffs.

The supplement also shows that the roads have changed their rules in respect to live stock so that in the future they will increase the rates 5 per cent for each 100 per cent increase in the value of the stock carried above amounts specified in their tariffs. The old rule provided for an increase of 20 per cent in the rates for each 100 per cent increase in value.

RHEUMATISM

PUFFY ANKLES OR EYE-LIDS, DROPSY, DIABETES

Spots Before the Eyes Are Sure Signs of Weak Kidneys.

If your limbs and joints are wrenched with the miseries of Rheumatism, if you have sharp, stabbing, shooting pains; weak, lame, aching back; inflamed bladder with scalding, burning sensations or any of those tormenting, life-sapping ailments due to deadly uric acid poison; swollen or puffy eyelids or ankles, spots before the eyes, yellow skin, shortness of breath, dizziness, dropsy, diabetes, difficulty in urinating are all sure signs of weak kidneys. Don't stop to wonder if they will become chronic, but take the famous receipe of old folks. Take a teaspoonful Stuart's Buchu and Juniper Compound after each meal. In a day or so your kidneys and bladder will act fine and natural. The symptoms disappear like magic, for Stuart's Buchu and Juniper Compound acts quickly on the kidneys and bladder, strengthens these organs and drains all impurities and uric acid from the kidneys. You then quickly regain your buoyancy and ambition, the skin taking on the red hue of pure, rich blood. All swellings in ankles or eyelids pass away. Diabetes, Rheumatism and dropsy is cured. Back pains and shortness of breath cease to worry you.—(adv.)

Rotarians to Show Atlanta As It Will Appear in 1960

A great painting of Atlanta, as the Rotarians believe it will appear forty-five years from today, will be one of the features at the Newcomers' celebration at the Auditorium-Armory on next Tuesday night.

This painting, which will be only one of the unique offerings of the evening's entertainment, is now in process of construction in the Massengale scenic studios.

The picture must be seen to be appreciated. Immense buildings pierce the sky. Peachtree is eclipsed by a hundred others equally as thrifty and busy with traffic. Aeroplanes have supplanted the Georgia Railway and Power company and autos.

Lamp-posts, instead of adorning street corners, now radiate from the several corners of aero stations upon the forty and fifty-storied buildings that have replaced the Candler building, the Ansley and the Third National, as well as all the others. The commuter who use to catch a Buckhead trolley at 7 a. m. is seen reading snatches from four morning newspapers in a commercialized Zeppelin.

A central park surrounds Stone Mountain, and the mountain has been converted into a monument, with concessionaire stands adorning the neighborhood, with policemen riding around in individual aeroplanes to keep the soda dispensers from selling adulterated ice cream to the children.

Beginning Sunday things begin to happen in the Newcomers' celebration. Every pastor in the city will deliver a specially prepared sermon on the event, and there will be song and music. The shopping district will blossom in decorative splendor, and the glad hand will begin extending itself toward the stranger in our midst.

The offices of the Rotary club were flooded with the names of Newcomers sent in following The Constitution's story Thursday morning, and hundreds more are expected today. It is urged that every resident who knows of a Newcomer who came since January 1, 1914, send the name and address without delay to the Rotary club.

3 MOONSHINERS CAUGHT IN CRISP BY REVENUE MEN

Cordele, Ga., May 6.—(Special.)—United States Deputy Marshal A. C. Howell and George F. Brown, of Macon, captured three moonshiners in Crisp county last night and confiscated their stills, which were of the "lard can" variety.

Cliff Nipper and Gid Watson, white men, and Alex Lane, a negro of the southeastern part of the county, have been arrested. Stills were found located in the smokehouses of Nipper and the negro, both of whom confessed to distilling.

Watson admitted the ownership of a still found in a sawmill house on the farm of his father. Sixty-five gallons of beer and a quantity of liquor was captured with Lane's still, though none was found at the other stills.

It is expected that about ten other arrests will be made in the three cases.

Judge Scores Accused When State Can't Prove He Broke Liquor Law

Savannah, Ga., May 6.—(Special.)—Because the state failed to substantiate the charges of violating the prohibition law, Judge Davis Freeman, in the court, today directed a verdict of not guilty in the case of L. Sable.

Before the defendant left the courtroom Judge Freeman gave him a warning. Sable has been previously tried on similar charges, and the last time, upon conviction, was put on probation.

Judge Freeman said:

"The next time you are convicted in this court I shall sentence you to twelve months on the chaingang, $1,000 fine and six months in jail. You will not be put on probation, either. You were put on probation before, and I am morally certain you broke it."

BEAUTY CONTEST AT END SATURDAY

as Mrs. Champ Clark, wife of the speaker of the house of representatives in Washington; Mrs. Francis Swayne, the noted author; Mrs. Pauline Smart, one of the most prominent clubwomen of Cleveland; Mrs. C. B. Bryan, a social leader of Memphis; Mrs. Anne Cummins Frye, of Boston, a member of the literary colony of Scituate.

The journey to San Francisco will live in the memory of each girl who takes it as the most charming period of her life. It is nothing short of a great, big dream come true. Every dream of a lifetime can hardly compare with the beauty of the wonderful tour, the sights, the entertainments, the enjoyment, the thrills . . . and the gigantic expositions in San Francisco and San Diego.

The Greatest Feature.

But the greatest feature of the entire trip will be the visit to Universal City, Cal., where each and every girl will be introduced to the mysteries of moving pictures in the making. They will meet and mingle with a whole who will show them over the numbercity full of the screen's greatest stars, less studios, the menageries, the homes of the stars, the monster laboratories and every plant in the film-making city.

And not only that, but the Universal company will make a big feature film based upon the winners of the beauty contests. Each girl will be given a character to play, and will, for the time-being, at least, be a full-fledged movie actress in a picture that will be shown in every theater that runs Universal pictures.

If any of the girls display talent and a disposition to take up moving pictures for a career, the Universal is on the lookout for fresh material, and will put her on the payroll of the concern. She will be put in the hands of professional instructors and taught the art of picture acting.

The Georgia girl who wins The Constitution's contest will leave Atlanta for Chicago. In that big city she will join the party that has congregated there in a thrilling round of incessant entertainment. There will be theater parties, receptions, sight-seeing tours and many other forms of celebration. Then the party will leave for New York, to join the main body of the tourists.

There has never before been a trip that can compare with The Constitution-Universal's tour of America en route to the San Francisco exposition and Universal City. The Universal company, who will have direct charge of the tour, never does things halfway.

The winner will be the luckiest girl in Georgia. She'll say there's no doubt about that when she returns and undertakes the impossible feat of describing it all to her friends.

CARMAN CASE WITNESS CLAIMS BRIBE OFFER

Promised $300 to Change Story for the Defendant, Says Negro Maid.

Mineola, N. Y., May 6.—The prosecution in the case of Mrs. Florence Conklin Carman, on trial for the second time, charged with the murder of Mrs. Louise D. Bailey, brought forward new testimony today in corroboration of Celia Coleman, a negro maid in the Carman home, who has been the state's chief witness.

Celia herself supplied new testimony in continuation today of her examination as a witness against her former mistress, when she declared she had been offered $300 to change the story she had told at the first trial when the jury disagreed. Celia said the offer was made to her by a negro detective.

Following up this new development the district attorney put on the stand George Turner, a negro, who not only corroborated Celia in regard to the alleged bribery offer, but was permitted to testify that she had told him on July 2, last, of Mrs. Carman's alleged admissions regarding the killing of Mrs. Bailey.

The district attorney, cross-examining Mrs. Ida Powell, sister of Mrs. Carman, put questions intended to show that Dr. Carman, husband of the defendant, knew that a woman who was in the physician's waiting room the night of the shooting, had gone to Canada. Two young women were in the waiting room then, and Dr. Carman and his family have maintained they did not know who they were.

"Did Dr. Carman tell you that one of these young women wrote to him and said it would ruin her to testify at the first trial?" Mrs. Powell was asked.

She answered, "no."

The defense, opening its case late today called Mrs. Helen Corby, niece of Mrs. Carman, and her husband, Charles; Mr. and Mrs. Platt Conklin, Mrs. Carman's parents, and 10-year-old Elizabeth Carman, who testified that at the time of the shooting, and subsequently, Mrs. Carman was in her room.

SLEEPS OFF DRUNK IN A GOSPEL TENT; JUDGE FREES HIM

Joe Smith, whose indiscretions in the past have made him well acquainted with the police, was arraigned in the recorder's court Thursday afternoon for using a gospel tent to sleep off the effects of booze.

The officer stated that Smith was found asleep in the gospel tent at the corner of Peters and Leonard streets at 11:30 o'clock Wednesday night. Smith's only companions were two flasks of whisky, the half of one having disappeared.

Smith said that he had been left in charge of the tent by a young man who claimed to be the tent's nocturnal guardian.

So eloquently did Smith plead his own case that he was let off with a lecture and an admonition to keep out of gospel tents in the future, unless he went there to worship.

AFTER SEVEN YEARS NEGRO ANSWERS FOR CRIME OF MURDER

Leesburg, Ga., May 6.—(Special.)—Cliff Sims, a negro, who shot and killed a negro woman, Catharine Boston, on D. C. Jones' place, seven years ago, was tried and found guilty of first degree murder here yesterday.

Sims made good his escape at the time of he crime, going to Nashville, Tenn.

He killed a negro there, but was acquitted. Sims was arrested in Nashville last December, and a Lee county officer, armed with requisition papers, went to Tennessee and brought him back to Lee county.

There are four other negroes to be tried for murder at this term of court. The date for Sims' execution has not yet been fixed.

15 KILLED BY TORNADO.

Western Part of Acadia Parish, Louisiana, Is Swept.

Jennings, La., May 6.—Fifteen persons were killed and more than two score injured by a tornado late today which passed through the western part of Acadia parish, in the southern portion of the state. Of the known dead, Adam Thibodeaux, killed by flying timbers on a farm near Mermentau, was the only white person to lose his life. The remainder were negroes.

Five negroes were killed at Mermentau and twenty-five persons are known to have been injured. Among several whose injuries it is believed will be fatal is John Broussard, a well-known planter and a member of the Mermentau city council. Mr. Broussard was found beneath the ruins of his home several hours after the tornado had passed.

DAY FIXED IN ALABAMA TO BANISH ILLITERACY

Montgomery, Ala., May 6.—In a proclamation issued by Governor Henderson, June 7 is set apart as Illiteracy day in Alabama. All citizens are called upon by the governor to lay aside matters of private concern and co-operate in the working out of plans for the removal of illiteracy. This is the start of a campaign which is intended to result in the organization of moonlight schools for illiterate adults and for other work towards the banishment of illiteracy in Alabama.

ALBANY PLANS TO USE ST. ANDREWS BAY CANAL

Available Appropriation Insures Water Communication With the Gulf.

Albany, Ga., May 6.—(Special.)—Albany is gathering momentum and enthusiasm for an organized movement to take full advantage of the opportunity which the recent completion of the St. Andrews bay canal places before her.

The canal, recently opened, makes it possible for river boats to pass freely between Albany and St. Andrews bay, which is one of the best deep water ports on the Gulf of Mexico. Apalachicola, where the waters of the Flint and Chattahoochee reach the gulf, and where river steamers have formerly reached tide water, is a shallow port, where all ocean freight has to be lightered.

Through the chamber of commerce, Albany is preparing to put a generous share of her freight traffic on the river. Larger boats than the small steamers that have hitherto done a local business on the river will be put in commission, or gasoline barges will be bought and installed. At any rate, ample facilities will be provided for handling much of Albany's freight on the river, with a view to securing substantial reductions of freight rates. Under the recent ruling of the interstate commerce commission, Albany will lose the freight rate advantages that have so long been hers unless she makes real instead of theoretical use of the river. The chamber of commerce has gone sufficiently into the matter to make it clear that immediate action is necessary, and it will be taken vigorously.

Congressman Park attended a booster meeting of the chamber of commerce Tuesday night and impressed Albany business men with the splendid opportunity Albany has as the result of completion of the St. Andrews canal. Through the congressman's efforts a larger congressional appropriation for improvements in Flint river below Albany will be available during the coming fiscal year than in any year since the river improvements were inaugurated a third of a century ago. The channel is already in excellent condition except at a few points affected by very low water.

CHILD MURDERER WRITES HE'LL GET ANOTHER VICTIM

New York, May 6.—The child murderer who killed 5-year-old Elenore Cohn and 4-year-old Charlie Murray has written to the Murray boy's mother, telling her that he will commit another murder when excitement over her child's death subsides.

The letter was received today at the time the little victim's body was about to be buried. Mrs. Murray read one paragraph and collapsed. The missive was taken to police headquarters to be examined for finger prints.

The murder of the little boy, killed by knife wounds May 3, was preceded by a similar threat contained in a letter addressed to Mrs. Cohn, the mother of the little girl killed March 29.

The letter to Mrs. Murray was mailed in this city at 7:30 o'clock last night, in the belief that the slayer would be near at the time of the Murray boy's funeral today, scores of detectives mingled with the crowds outside the Murray home. One suspect was arrested, but later was released.

East Side mothers, thoroughly alarmed, escorted their children to and from school in the neighborhood today.

POSTOFFICE ROBBED?

Smarrs Fire Believed to Cover Yeggman's Tracks.

Forsyth, Ga., May 6.—(Special.)—Fire, of unknown origin, early Wednesday morning completely destroyed the store of D. O. Trammell, at Smarrs, five miles south of Forsyth, together with the contents. The store was also used as the postoffice, and it is thought that the postoffice was robbed and the store set on fire to cover up the evidence of the deed.

From the store the fire spread to a cotton storage building and destroyed twenty bales of cotton and five tons of fertilizer, the property of R. D. Maddox, a farmer of Smarrs.

During the night a mule belonging to J. F. Eady was stolen, and it is thought that the person who set fire to the postoffice made his escape on this mule.

AUGUSTUS PEACOCK ELECTED MEMBER OF CITY COUNCIL

Augustus T. Peacock, member of the faculty of Georgia Tech, was unanimously elected Thursday by the general council to fill the vacancy in council from the tenth ward created by the resignation of C. C. Mason, who has been named chief clerk to Ordinary Thomas H. Jeffries.

After his election by the general council Mr. Peacock was sworn in by Mayor Woodward, and it is now "Councilman Peacock, of the tenth." He will attend his first council meeting one week from next Monday.

Mr. Peacock's name was put before the general council by Alderman Ragsdale, of the tenth, and the nomination was seconded by Councilman Sam Freeman, of the tenth.

DIVORCE MILL BUSY IN WARE COUNTY

Waycross, Ga., May 6.—(Special.)—Probably more divorce cases have been disposed of during the first few days of superior court this year than ever before. Most of the cases have been white, which is contrary to the rule in Ware. All of the divorce business scheduled for attention this week has not been reached, and some of the cases may go over for the term.

FRANK APPEAL MANDATE RECEIVED ON THURSDAY

Absence of Judge Newman Will Delay Resentencing for a Few Days.

The official mandate of the supreme court of the United States, notifying the northern Georgia division of federal court that the Washington court had denied the appeal of Leo M. Frank, reached the office of Clerk O. C. Fuller in the federal building Thursday afternoon.

Action will not be taken upon it, however, until the return of Judge Newman next Saturday. If he returns Saturday morning Solicitor Dorsey will probably be notified that day and a move will be made at once to bring Frank before Judge Hill for resentencing.

Immediately that Frank is resentenced—which is not expected to be beyond Monday at the latest—his counsel will seek to expedite the proposed hearing before the prison commission in the last effort to spare his neck from the scaffold.

It is reported that the prison commission will likely hold a special session next week in order to hear the Frank plea for mercy. The hearing will require at least three days, owing to the exhaustiveness of the defense's plea.

Judge Ben Hill holds a plea for habeas corpus asking him to direct the sheriff to bring Frank before him for the setting of a new and final death date. The plea was submitted Monday but no action was taken on it because the supreme court mandate had not been forwarded to the lower court.

HOG CHOLERA PROVES COSTLY TO GEORGIA

New Outbreaks Due to Shipments From Other States, Says Bahnsen.

During the last three or four weeks, says State Veterinarian Peter F. Bahnsen, an unprecedented number of new outbreaks of hog cholera have occurred on Georgia farms and in centers hitherto not infected by cholera. This is due, he says, to the shipment from Tennessee and other states and from public stock yards, as well as from intrastate shipments of hogs reported, by accompanying health certificates, to have received the simultaneous treatment.

The purchasers in many stances lost not only the hogs bought but frequently many of the original herds which became infected by the new arrivals.

"This condition presents a grave menace to the industry," says Dr. Bahnsen.

To relieve this situation, special order No. 18, effective on and after May 5, has been promulgated, the sense of which is as follows:

No swine diseased with hog cholera or plague shall be removed from any state into the state of Georgia or from any county in the state of Georgia into any other county in the state. All persons intending to ship swine into or within the state of Georgia shall ascertain before offering them for such shipment that the animals are not diseased and have not been exposed to hog cholera or the contagion of any other disease.

All public stock yards shall be considered infectious and no movement of swine therefrom shall be made under certain conditions.

Hogs exposed but not infected may be shipped to recognized slaughtering centers for immediate slaughter. When so shipped they shall be billed as "exposed to hog cholera" and the cars shall be so placarded; each letter of this placard shall be in block type not less than 3 inches high.

Swine intended for other purposes than immediate slaughter may be shipped interstate from public stock yards, provided that on inspection and approval of proper authorities.

Clean and disinfected cars or other vehicles only shall be used for the movement of swine which have been properly inoculated and certified to.

Express shipments direct from breeder to consumer may be made under certain conditions.

Affidavits are required for the compliance with certain sections of this order.

Full copies of the order and the affidavit blanks may be had on application to the state agricultural department.

Lawyers to Debate Men and Religion Bulletins Saturday

Atlanta lawyers will clash over the Men and Religion bulletins Saturday night in the Chamber of Commerce assembly room.

The attack on the bulletins will be led by Basil Stockbridge. The opponents of the bulletins have fortified themselves with communications from some of Atlanta's leading citizens.

From leaders in the chamber of commerce, communications have been addressed to Mr. Stockbridge. J. P. Haunson will be associated with Mr. Stockbridge. Leonard J. Grossman, attorney, will preside at the meeting.

The friends of the bulletins will be represented by Colonels Hurlbutt and J. W. Crenshaw.

This will be the first civic mass meeting in the assembly hall of the chamber of commerce, now located at Pryor and Auburn avenue.

Pressly Announces To Succeed Cummings In Fire Department

R. H. Pressly, for the past five years first assistant chief of the fire department, has formally announced that he will be a candidate for chief of the department when the election is held in July. He has been in active service in the department for the past twenty-seven years.

"I have never asked for a promotion in the past, since all have come voluntarily on the part of the fire board," said Chief Pressly Thursday. "For five years I have been first assistant chief; for four years, second assistant chief; for three years, third assistant chief; for six years, captain, and five years lieutenant."

Chief W. B. Cummings, the incumbent, who has been chief of the department eight years, is a candidate to succeed himself, and another candidate is Captain W. F. Cory. G. C. Courtney, second assistant chief, is also being urged by friends to offer for election to the position.

FRECKLES

Don't Hide Them With a Veil; Remove Them With the Othine Prescription.

This prescription for the removal of freckles was written by a prominent physician and is usually so successful in removing freckles and giving a clear, beautiful complexion that it is sold by Jacobs' Pharmacy or any druggist under guarantee to refund the money if it fails.

Don't hide your freckles under a veil; get an ounce of othine and remove them. Even the first few applications should show a wonderful improvement, some of the lighter freckles vanishing entirely.

Be sure to ask the druggist for the double strength othine; it is this that is sold on the money-back guarantee.

Same Sturdy Construction at the same Before-the-War Prices

It's true that the great foreign war has brought a sharp increase in the cost of leather, but through fortunate purchases—made several months ago—the Snow shoe still maintains, at popular prices, that staunch construction and quality which has given it such an enviable reputation for forty years.

The "Snow" Wearmore Shoes for Men

You should see the Snow Arch-Supporting Insole, the Snow Cushion Insole, and the Snow "Non-Wear" Sole. The "Wearmore" Cotton Fabric Sole outwears three or four ordinary leather soles, and is obtainable in Snow shoes exclusively at $4.00 or over.

We are pleased to be able to offer you this splendid line of men's shoes at before-the-war prices:

$3.00 to $5.00

Snow boys' shoes at $2.50 to $5.00 look just like dad's—and they wear, too.

Snow cloth and buckskin top novelties are especially popular at this time.

If there are better shoes made for men and boys at these prices we have yet to see them—but don't take our word for it; drop in and examine the line yourself.

JITNEY BUS SOLUTION OFFERED BY BROYLES

Suggests That Street Car Company Sell Tickets at Reduced Rate and Abolish Transfers.

Robert A. Broyles, one of Atlanta's grocery merchant princes, and a man trained in traffic matters by a railroad service covering a long period of years, thinks he has the solution of the controversy between the jitneys and the electric lines. He believes that the problem will be solved if the electric lines will make a reduction in the sale of tickets in lots, and that if they will agree to this the people would consent to do away with transfers.

Mr. Broyles believes that a solution along this line would pay not only the traveling public but the electric line corporation. He has embodied his views in a petition to Chairman Murphy Candler and to his associates on the railroad commission, which he proposes to push with his characteristic energy.

Mr. Broyles' Petition.

The petition is as follows:

Atlanta, Ga., May 6, 1915.—Hon. Murphy Candler, Chairman Railroad Commission of Georgia, Atlanta, Ga.—My Dear Sir: Allow me to submit in writing (for the consideration of your honorable body) the suggestion I made yesterday, verbally, with regard to the proposed change in system of passenger fares, etc., on Georgia Railway and Electric company.

I respectfully suggest that if you will require this company to sell 8 tickets for 25 cents, 3 for 10 cents or 5 cents straight fare, and allow them (if necessary) to discontinue giving transfers, the revenue of the company will suffer no decrease whatever, and to the contrary, their earnings be increased 10 to 20 per cent by increased travel. As a basis for this opinion, I estimate about 33 1-3 per cent of their passengers travel on transfers, which really now nets the company 2 1-3 cents per passenger hauled. Five cents straight, 3 tickets for a dime or 8 for 25 cents will produce practically the same result. There will be sufficient 5-cent fares from strangers and others to balance the number of tickets sold at 3 1-8 cents (8 for 25 cents) to make an average of 3 1-3 cents. Therefore, leaving out the question of increased business, the company would lose nothing, and practically everyone be benefited. Hundreds of women and girls are now walking to their work and eating a cold sandwich for dinner, who would ride at 3 1-8 cents. Hundreds of school children are now walking to and from schools even in inclement weather, who would also ride at 3 1-8 cents. Besides, a multitude of other people who would take advantage of the lowered rate, thus justifying more frequent schedules.

No Inconvenience.

I contend, further, but few if any who now use transfers would be in any way inconvenienced or overtaxed, to-wit., a working man or business man who would have to use four tickets for a round trip to his business and return would suffer only an additional expense of 2 1-2 cents, his family following him (even occasionally) to town would travel at the reduced rates, and thereby save him the excess paid for his own passage. Again, by this regulation those traveling the long distance would pay only in proportion to distance traveled, which you will concede is equitable, as no logic will justify one traveling only a mile to be charged as much as the passenger traveling 10 or more miles.

Respectfully submitted.
R. A. BROYLES.

"Jitney Bus" Case Goes To the Supreme Court By Bill of Exceptions

Judge W. D. Ellis early last night gave his certificate to the bill of exceptions asked by J. F. Hazleton and the "jitney bus" operators of Atlanta to the ruling of Judge Ellis in the recent application of the "jitney bus" people for injunction against the city of Atlanta.

The bill took exception to every one of the ten rulings. Until the supreme court acts upon it, however, the "jitney bus" case will remain in status quo.

Many constitutional allegations are contained in the application, and, if the case is lost in the state supreme court counsel for the operators stated last night that they would carry their plea even into the United States supreme court at Washington.

The "jitney bus" people are seeking to overthrow the ordinance recently enacted by council regulating their operation.

NEW "JITNEY" LAW.

Macon "Jitney" Men and the Street Railway Agree.

Macon, Ga., May 6.—(Special.)—As the result of a conference between the street committee of council, attorneys representing the jitney bus owners of Macon and the attorney for the Macon Railway and Light company, a modified ordinance for the regulation of jitneys was agreed on, and it will be presented to the mayor and council at the meeting next Tuesday night.

The original ordinance, which was introduced by Alderman Taylor, provided that the owners should give bond of $5,000, where only one bus was operated, or $10,000 where two or more buses are in use, and should pay a license fee of $10 per seat, including the driver. Under the agreement reached this will be modified if council passes the substitute ordinance so that a surety bond of $1,000 can be given for each jitney upon each individual case of liability. Any reputable citizen of Bibb county owning property can act as surety, if acceptable to the mayor and council.

The new ordinance rearranges the license fee schedule, fixing the amount of $25 for a five-passenger car; $40 for a seven-passenger car, and $75 for those seating eight or more people.

CHIEF BEAVERS ACTS AS THE AUCTIONEER AT "OLD HOSS" SALE

Articles of every description were sold at auction at police station yesterday by Auctioneer Police Chief James L. Beavers. It was the annual auction sale of stolen goods recovered by the police but never claimed by the owners.

Chief Beavers, mounted on a soap box in the entrance to the patrolmen's assembly hall, amid a huge heap of junk that was to be auctioned, proved himself worthy of being the crier at a sheriff's sale.

Lawn mowers, carving knives, automobile tires, boxing gloves, ladies' suits, lingerie, knives, books, bats and baseballs, mattresses, dainty silk hosiery, brought prices ranging from 50 cents to $10.

TWO NEW BUILDINGS PLANNED FOR MACON

Macon, Ga., May 6.—(Special.)—Two new building undertakings were announced today showing that Macon realty owners have not lost faith in the future of the city despite the continuation of the war and the subsequent financial stringency in this country. B. T. Kemper, a merchant, is to erect a two-story brick building at Broadway and Second streets at a cost of $15,000. Howell Erminger, Jr., is to remodel the old Turpin building at Third street and Wall street alley, at a cost of several thousand dollars.

BETTER TIMES SEEN BY SALVATION ARMY LEADER IN ATLANTA

After a successful tour of inspection of Salvation Army work in North and South Carolina, Brigadier Andrew W. Crawford, in charge of the southeastern division of the Army, with headquarters in Atlanta, has returned to the city with splendid reports of the work and of improved business conditions generally.

"It is natural," said Mr. Crawford, "that the Salvation Army should be a barometer of general conditions. Our support comes from the public, and when the public is in need, then our source of income is greatly diminished. The same rule works the other way, for we assist those who in good times are on the verge of destitution, so when the slightest difficulty comes our income goes down and our calls go up.

"It is encouraging to note that the people are taking more interest than ever before in our meetings and the south generally is rallying to the support of our work more earnestly than ever."

Brigadier Crawford is greatly encouraged over the work of the Salvation Army in the cities he has just visited, and will leave in a few days for a similar trip through Florida.

MACON WILL HAVE NEW DISINFECTANT PLANT

Macon, Ga., May 6.—(Special.)—Application for charter for a new disinfectant plant to be located in Macon has been filed in the Bibb superior court by Gates G. Waxelbaum, who is to be president, and Morris Klein, who will be secretary. The new company will be known as the Empire Products company, and will manufacture disinfectants, dips for cattle, floor sweeping compounds and insectides. Chemicals which formerly came from Germany will be obtained from New York, these now being made from coal tar products secured from Pennsylvania.

"DOPE" TURNS MACON DOCTOR INTO YEGGMAN

Macon, Ga., May 6.—(Special.)—"Dope" is said to have caused the downfall of Dr. John R. Vinson, the Macon physician who is now in jail, a self-confessed yeggman, who robbed the safe of a negro drug store last Sunday night and secured about $400 and some deeds, notes and other valuable papers.

Some time previous Dr. Vinson is said to have been caught in the act of taking a large quantity of cocaine from a Cherry street drug store, and afterward the proprietor forbid him to enter any of the six stores operated by him in Macon.

Dr. Vinson is still in jail, having been unable to raise the amount of the bond required for his release.

WAYCROSS HAS GAS PLANT PROPOSITION

Waycross, Ga., May 6.—(Special.)—Waycross has another gas proposition. They have been rather numerous in recent years, and of the several started not one has been finished. The latest offer, however, is different from all others, in that a cash guarantee, deposited in a local bank, is offered as evidence of good faith. R. B. Wagner, secretary of the board of directors of the Gratiot County Gas company, of Johnson City, Tenn., has made the city a proposition whereby gas will be furnished at a rate of $1.25, the plant to be ready for use within 12 months with not less than 18 miles of gas mains laid

REDUCED RATES GIVEN FOR QUITMAN MEETING

Parade, Cattle Show and "Seeing Georgia Tour" Will Be Big Features.

Great preparations have been made for the animal industry convention, which will be held at Quitman, May 26.

All the leading railroads included in a circle embraced by Montgomery, Chattanooga, Augusta, Savannah, Jacksonville, Tampa and Pensacola, a radius of about 500 miles, have put on a practically one-fare for the round trip rate, good for a week.

Probably the three biggest features of the convention are the parade and pageant, the big Hereford cattle show and the "Sewing Georgia Tour" of automobilists, which will contain probably two hundred or more from as far north as Cincinnati and Chicago.

The parade will contain the cars in the "Seeing Georgia tour," fifty to one hundred floats of the merchants of Quitman, fifty to one hundred cars full of "maids of honor," being the picked beauties of the gentle sex from southwest Georgia representing their various communities, about two hundred head of various kinds of high-grade stock such as horses and mules raised in southwest Georgia and about two hundred farm floats.

The Hereford cattle show will be one of the biggest drawing cards of the convention.

In addition to the show, the Hereford people have agreed with the Industrial Club of Quitman to hold over some of the cattle, and on the day following the convention to have a sale of pure-bred cattle at auction. Repert Hughes, of Indiana, the most original and leading Hereford auctioneer in the world, will conduct the auction.

"Seeing Georgia Tourists."

A feature not less attractive than any of the rest will the crowd of two hundred or more autoists from all parts of Georgia and as far north as Chicago, with Carter Harrison, the mayor of Chicago, in the crowd.

The autoists will spend the day in Quitman.

Three or four bands will give music all day and until midnight, and a big masked ball will be held in the streets from 7 o'clock at night until midnight.

BARWICK SHUTS SHOP TO GO TO QUITMAN SHOW

Quitman, Ga., May 6.—(Special.)—The city of Barwick has just voted to declare May 25 a legal holiday. All banks and every store in the community will be closed. The mayor has issued a proclamation confirming the action of the city council. The action was taken in order to allow the whole town to attend the animal industry convention on that day in Quitman. The citizens have arranged with the Georgia Northern railroad to run a special train.

Woman's Health Requires Care

Women are so constituted as to be peculiarly susceptible to constipation, and their general health depends in large measure on careful regulation and correction of this tendency. The delicate organisms rebel at the violence of cathartic and purgative remedies, which, while they may afford temporary relief, shock the system and seriously disturb the functional organs. A mild laxative is far preferable, and, if properly compounded, much more effective.

The combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin sold in drug stores under the name of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, is ideal for women's use. A free trial bottle can be obtained by writing to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 452 Washington St., Monticello, Ills.

Brilliant Social Program For Country Club Opening

In the informal opening on Saturday of the new country house of the Atlanta Athletic club at East Lake will be the climax of the week's social life, and the inauguration of another beautiful home of country club enjoyment.

The clubhouse, which was planned to be one of the most attractive in the country, is declared by those who have known much of country club life to embody all that the ideal implies of comfort and beauty. It is expected that the entire club membership will be present Saturday to have their first real inspection of it, and the occasion will be made one of social brilliance. The company will include only club members and ladies.

From 5 until 12 o'clock there will be music and dancing in the ballroom and on the terrace, and there will be a buffet supper to order.

The officers of the club, the house committee of the country club and the golf, tennis and grounds committees will be an informal receiving party.

The date of the formal opening has been changed to Saturday, the 15th, instead of the 22d, and on that occasion the club will keep open house from 5 until 7 o'clock.

Shower for Wesley House.

A mass meeting of the executive committee of the Board of City Missions was held at the home of Mrs. J. N. McEachern on Wednesday afternoon, and plans were perfected for the miscellaneous shower to be held at Wesley House on Tuesday, May 11. Articles of linen and other household furnishings will be very acceptable.

An informal reception will be held from 3 to 5 o'clock at Wesley House, and the following ladies composing the executive committee will be the hostesses of the occasion: Mrs. S. J. Heath, Mrs. W. A. Albright, Mrs. Luke Johnson, Mrs. J. N. McEachern, Mrs. W. R. Hammond, Mrs. E. W. Brogdon, Mrs. C. A. Mauck, Mrs. W. M. Jenkins, Mrs. A. L. Norris, Mrs. Sage Hardin, Mrs. J. E. Bivins, Miss Susie Wells, Mrs. R. J. Bates, Dr. Florence Truax, Miss Willie May Bridwell, Mrs. Frank Atler, Mrs. J. C. Kinzle, Mrs. H. W. Grant and Miss Eloise Guyton.

The physicians of the medical staff and Methodist ministers will assist in receiving. All interested are cordially invited.

To Misses Couch.

A delightful occasion of Tuesday afternoon was the card party and miscellaneous shower at which Misses Edith and Maude Couch entertained at their home on North Moreland avenue, the honor guest being Miss Pearl Dempsey, a popular bride-elect. The living room and dining room, where the game was played, were decorated with a profusion of pink roses and mountain laurel, and the pretty pink color note was continued in the ices and bon-bons.

Top score was made by Mrs. James Callaway, who was presented with a Kewpie bride, and Miss Dempsey received a white ivory picture frame.

A delicious ice course was served, the ices being frozen in the wedding slippers and the favors were pink crepe wedding bells. Miss Caroline Shivers served punch.

Those invited to meet Miss Dempsey were Miss Willie Richardson, Miss Kathleen Ashe, Miss Gladys McWilliams, Miss Ruby Martin, Miss Gladys Thrower, Miss Lilly Harmsen, Miss Frances West, Miss Louise Pritchett, Miss Caroline Shivers, Mrs. James Callaway, Mrs. Allen J. Young, Mrs. James M. Hewitt, Mrs. Couch.

Members who heard Mr. Loridans two weeks ago were so favorably impressed by his address that they asked him to preside and talk to them once more before the closing of the meetings of the Alliance Francaise, which will be at the end of May.

Last Friday Miss Tolman, a singer of great promise, delighted the audience with several songs. She is a pupil of Professor Gerard Thiers.

The Epworth league of College Park Methodist church will give an anniversary social this evening at 8 o'clock at the parsonage. All young people are invited.

Dinner-Dance.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Brandon entertained delightfully at dinner last night at their home on Pace's Ferry road, the occasion an informal gathering of thirty of their friends to meet Mrs. Blair Flandrau, of St. Paul, who is visiting Mrs. Don A. Pardee.

The company was seated for dinner at a large round table in the dining room, and its decorative color scheme was a rainbow combination. The centerpiece was an effective arrangement of pink roses and peonies, in the midst of which were caught bows of tulle in all the rainbow hues, and the candles burning in silver candlesticks were all the rainbow colors.

After a handsomely appointed dinner, there was dancing.

Mrs. Brandon was becomingly gowned in rose colored chiffon and taffeta. Mrs. Flandrau wore orchid colored tulle, and Mrs. Pardee was gowned in blue satin and lace.

Supper-Dance at Driving Club To Follow Annual Meeting

The reception and dance following the annual meeting of the Piedmont Driving club will be a brilliant event of Tuesday afternoon and evening, the meeting to take place from 5 to 6 o'clock, and "open house" to follow.

The occasion is always one of the most beautiful and most popular in the club year, and the setting this year will be more than usually attractive in the enlarged outdoor space for supper and dancing, and in the beauty of the terrace and its surroundings.

An innovation is the reservation of tables, and the following members have already spoken for them:

Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Jones, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Peeples, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall McKenzie, Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Cowles, Mr. and Mrs. Ulric Atkinson, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Adair, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Edwin F. The dinner-dance tomorrow at the Driving club will be informal.

Atlanta Window Is Entered In Big National Contest

A little of the beauty of May meadows has been transferred to Whitehall street this week in a flight of gay-tinted butterflies which fill one of Maier & Berkele's display windows.

Each carries a gold watch on its back, the butterflies picturing the central theme in a clever advertising idea, which celebrates the semi-centennial of a famous watch.

The window has been entered in a national contest inaugurated by an advertising club to mark this semi-centennial, and the attractiveness of the display, which stops and holds every passerby; its unique appeal, which is as direct as it is picturesque, promises to put Maier & Berkele in the prize-winning class.

The scheme of the window is complete. Old Father Time in the background has just discarded his traditional hour-glass, and is examining with evident delight his modern substitute—a beautiful thin-cased watch; while the great flock of butterflies, in all their natural hues and bright contrasts of color, are in full flight towards him with other watches, to gain for their burden the approval he has already showered upon the watches for fifty years.

A practical detail of the picture is a highly-jeweled watch shown under a powerful magnifying glass, which brings out in striking detail some of the excellencies of the movement; and the epoch-making events in the history of the factory producing this make are stated in a few pointed paragraphs in a modest corner of the window.

"1867—Time Flies—1915" is the title of the display, and few passersby have been too busy since it was installed to be halted by its beauty.

To Miss Alice Cox.

Mrs. Francis Kamper and Mrs. D. O. Dougherty will give an afternoon reception at the home of Mrs. Dougherty in Ansley Park May 21 in compliment to Miss Alice Bacon Cox.

Mrs. E. D. Kennedy entertained at a beautiful bridge tea yesterday afternoon at Druid Hills Golf club in compliment to her guest, Mrs. J. E. Hays, of Montezuma, and for Mrs. Mary Robinson, of Kentucky, who is visiting Mrs. George Brine.

The tables for bridge were placed in the dining room, where the decorations were a profusion of white and pink peonies. The prizes were a silk parasol and silk stockings, and the guests of honor were given fans. At the conclusion of the game tea was served on the terrace.

Mrs. Kennedy wore blue Georgette crepe with leghorn hat trimmed in pink roses and blue aigrettes. Mrs. Hays wore pink taffeta with pink hat trimmed in flowers, and Mrs. Robinson was gowned in cream net with leghorn hat trimmed in pink roses.

There were seventy-five guests.

To Dr. Connally.

Mrs. E. L. Connally entertained informally at tea yesterday afternoon at "The Homestead," in celebration of Dr. Connally's seventy-eighth birthday. Quantities of flowers decorated the apartments and the occasion was a very happy one.

Dr. and Mrs. Connally were assisted in receiving their guests by Mr. and Mrs. John Spalding, Mr. and Mrs. Warner Martin, Mr. Joseph Brown Connally, Mr. Thomas Whipple Connally, Miss Frances Connally and the five little granddaughters. The guests included seventy members of the large family connection.

The club chaperons will be Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Shivers, Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Adair, Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Dobbs, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Thrower, Mr. and Mrs. George R. Black, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. Claud Frederick, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Ison, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Park, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Abbott, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Ison, Dr. and Mrs. W. S. Elkin and Mr. and Mrs. Julian Chase.

May Festival.

A May festival will be given this afternoon at 4:30 o'clock on the school grounds of the North Avenue Presbyterian church school.

The following interesting program will be given by the children of the different grades:

"Wee Mousie" (dramatization), first grade.

Old English singing game, second grade.

Greek boxing game, fourth grade boys.

"Old Pipes and the Dryad" (dramatization), fifth grade.

Morris dance, third grade.

Old English country dance, fourth grade.

Mrs. Jarnagin to Read.

This evening at 7:30 o'clock at Carnegie library, Mrs. W. C. Jarnigan will give a reading of a poetic Indian drama, "The Arrow-Maker," by Mary Austin. This is a play which was produced at the New Theater and which contains a beautiful and impassioned plea for woman's freedom. The leading role in New York was played by Edith Wynne Matheson.

This reading is one of a series of early evening readings designed for young business people whose occupations make it impossible for them to attend the regular club meetings of the city. They are given under the auspices of the Drama League, but no membership in that organization is necessary and they are open to the public without fee. As other readings of the series have been given to overflowing audiences, and as Mrs. Jarnagin is one of the most beautiful and gifted readers in Atlanta, it is expected that a large crowd will be present.

The party will reach LaGrange about 1 o'clock and plans are being made to entertain them at a luncheon. It is possible that a typical Georgia barbecue, served in the Ferrell Gardens, near LaGrange, will be the form of entertainment.

The world has known what Cottolene is for over a quarter of a century

Cottolene established a class of its own over a generation ago.

Cottolene was in the front rank of the great movement for bettering household service and for improving food products.

Its manufacture and its constituents are as well known as the simplest things done in every kitchen.

Cottolene

The cottonseed oil in Cottolene is pressed from selected seed—it is a grade so choice that it is not listed on the market. It is purer, sweeter and better in food value than most salad oils. The beef stearine is the product of the finest leaf beef suet known.

It is the exact combination of these two fats which gave Cottolene its high place over a quarter of a century ago, and which has held this place for it.

Cottolene is economical, but better than that it actually improves the quality and flavor of all foods cooked with it.

Your grocer has Cottolene now

Tell your grocer you want a pail now; arrange with him for your regular weekly supply. Write to our General Offices, Chicago, for our real cook book—"HOME HELPS"—free.

Automobile Thieves Make Life a Burden For Dr. I. T. Catron

Dr. I. T. Catron, whose offices are in the Fourth National Bank building, claims that he is "some sufferer" at the hands of automobile thieves, who, within the past year, have stolen one auto, one Prest-O-Lite tank, his surgical case, a suit case full of clothes, an auto horn, and, Wednesday afternoon, the coils of his vibrators.

"All of these robberies have been committed within a stone's throw of a traffic officer," said Dr. Catron, "and none of the thieves has been detected. I am a strong supporter of the police department, but I do think that something ought to be done by the police."

FOLKSTON ROAD MEET.

Large Gathering Saturday to Urge "Short Cut."

Waycross, Ga., May 6.—(Special.)—Saturday, at Folkston, representatives from the various Georgia and Florida counties, through which the "Short-cut" association is urging that the Dixie highway go, will gather to discuss final plans for their final fight at the Chattanooga meeting of the Dixie highway commissioners.

Committees have been busy in each county of the Fitzgerald-Waycross-Folkston route recently preparing statistics and other data for presentation to the commissioners by May 10. Road work has been rushed in all counties so that the backers of the route would be able to report progress on the route as well as make pledges for future improvements.

In Charlton the people are wide-awake to the possibilities of the Dixie highway, and have agreed to do everything necessary to get on the highway. The Florida counties between Folkston and Jacksonville are equally interested, and have done much for the proposed highway. Good weather almost throughout the section traversed has been of vast assistance in getting roads in shape, especially in Ware county.

No program for the Folkston has been announced, but it is understood that addresses will be delivered by a number of prominent men who live along the route.

The mill will be immediately rebuilt.

SNOW COVERS FRUIT IN TEXAS ORCHARDS

Under Canopy of Greenery Miss Hunter Weds Mr. Hendee

Cornelia, Ga., May 6.—(Special.)—Before an altar of pines beneath the peristyle at "Yonah Vista," the country place of Mr. and Mrs. William Bogert Hunter, at Cornelia, Miss Ruth Hunter, their daughter, was married Thursday to Mr. Searle Hendee, of Chicago.

The ceremony, which was solemnized by the Rev. John E. Ellis, was held in the open in the midst of a transplanted forest of greenery and mountain flowers. Some fifty guests were assembled on the broad lawn in front of the bridal bower.

As the first strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march were carried across the lawn the bride, accompanied by her father, left the entrance of the home, preceded by Master Anson Wheeller, as page; Miss George Erwin, as flower girl, and tiny Miss Helen Bellhouse, who carried a great wild tulip, in the heart of which was the wedding circlet. They were followed by the mother of the bride and the groom's parents, who took part in the procession, an innovation which added a distinctive touch to the original character of the formalities.

Groom Joins Bride.

It was as the party reached a gateway opening onto a broad avenue of low pines, deeply carpeted with roses and mountain flowers and extending in a graceful curve across the green from the drive to the peristyle, that it was joined by the groom and the minister. Walking slowly to the soft strains of music, which were made more than usually appealing by the artistic touch of Mr. C. Cornwall. Little Miss Bellhouse, dressed as the fairy of happiness and good fortune, strewed the way with ribboned notes from her store of wedded wishes. These bore such adages as "Days of bliss and happiness rare, follows a marriage in open air" and "Change the name and not the letter, fortune changes for the better."

At the terminus of the pine avenue, which was formed by the white bars of the peristyle, banked with cedars and gareanded with vines interwoven with rhododendron, wild magnolias and azalias, the attendants grouped themselves while the bride and groom turned, facing the minister, and the guests who were some distance from them. Then, while the breeze still carried the soft chords of the march faintly from the veranda, the simple words were spoken and the couple united.

The party returned to the gateway of the avenue, where the young couple was greeted by the parents and then received the words of congratulation and the hopes of joyous happiness extended to them by their friends.

Wedding Breakfast.

A dainty wedding breakfast was served at small tables grouped under the trees over the lawn. The wedding party was seated in an inclosed summer house at one end of the peristyle, which also was covered with cedar boughs and branches of wild flowers. To this, the tables with their wealth of roses adding bright touches of color to the scheme, fitted in harmoniously before the natural background of greenery.

At midafternoon the wedded pair, followed by the good wishes of the guests, left the place of the festivities by automobie for a honeymoon trip to the coast and return. During this they will be entertained at Savannah by Mr. and Mrs. Mark Sheridan and at Augusta by Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Berckmans and Mr. and Mrs. P. J. A. Berchmans, Jr. After their return they will leave for Wilmette, a north shore suburb of Chicago, where Miss Hunter was born, to make their home.

Knocks Are Plentiful For City Government At Luncheon of Ad Men

Mayor James G. Woodward and Julian Boehm had harsh things to say about Atlanta's political embroglios Thursday at noon during the luncheon of the Ad Men in the Hotel Ansley. The mayor, without dealing in personalities, charged that there was a "ring" machine in the city hall that not only had control of the city government, but likewise dictated governmental affairs of the county.

"There is a certain 'ring' element in the city hall," he stated, "that has control of Atlanta and the government of Fulton county. We are coming to a crisis and we must find some method whereby we can revise the city government of Atlanta from top to bottom. But, be all that as it may, regardless of all else, I am trying my utmost to serve the best interests of the city in every manner possible."

Shortly later, when Julian Boehm arose to his feet, he likened the city government to a disorganized industrial plant, thusly:

"If I were running a business like the city government, with the foreman going one way, a subordinate going another, and every element in a state of demoralization, I'm like Mayor Woodward—I'd clean them out in one sweep, tell them to step to —— without any unnecessary delay and give them to understand that I was running things."

All estimated, there were less than four minutes of politics in the Ad Club luncheon, but the brevity of it was equalled only by the spiciness of it.

TEACHERS WILL GET CREDIT FOR WORK DONE OUTSIDE CITY

Over the protest of Alderman I. N. Ragsdale, the aldermanic board Thursday approved two measures passed by council Monday relative to the action of the board of education in allowing teachers credit for work done in other school systems.

The ordinance providing that the board may give teachers brought here from other systems credit for work up to three years was passed with only the vote of Alderman Ragsdale against it. The resolution ratifying the action of the board in action already taken relative to giving credits was also passed. Both measures were introduced by Alderman Jesse W. Armistead, chairman of the school committee of council.

Alderman Ragsdale said he opposed the measure to give credits for work done in other schools because he believed it would get the election of teachers into politics and be unfair to local teachers. He said he favored paying all teachers alike.

Before the two measures can become effective they must have the signature of the mayor. He has said that he opposes the credit system and believes the act ratifying the alleged illegal act of the board of education is illegal and he may veto both papers.

A thin man is in difficulties for life, but a thin woman can join the buy-a-bale movement and reconstruct her figure to suit.

HATS FOR CHILDREN FEATURE OF BAZAR AT FIRST CHRISTIAN

Unique among church bazars will be that held by the First Christian church Friday, for children's hats will be the specialty to be sold at the church.

The display of hats which will constitute the "feature" of the bazar is under the direction of Mrs. Jasper N. Bell and Mrs. B. B. Hudgins, and will be an elaborate one. The hats have been trimmed with hand-made artificial flowers by Mrs. Hudgins, whose ability is well known in Atlanta.

The proceeds of the bazar will go to the building fund of the church. Luncheon will be served at noon.

LONG DROUTH BROKEN AND CROPS FLOURISH

Thomasville, Ga., May 6.—(Special.) The serious drouth which has prevailed in this section of south Georgia has been broken by rains this week, and it is expected they have come in time to remedy the damage done.

The oat crop, which was the one most seriously affected, will probably come out again in some parts of the county, though some of the farmers think it too far gone in others to be helped. The corn, watermelon and other crops were not materially damaged by the drouth, but, like cotton, are rather backward, and will grow more rapidly now that the soil has moisture enough to benefit them.

ALL THAT'S LEFT FOR ITALY.

If we may rely upon the Rome cables that the divergence between Austria and Italy is too wide to permit of agreement we may readily accept the conclusion that war is all that is now left for Italy. And it is not too much to say that Italy would welcome it in the hope of greater ultimate remuneration than she can hope to gain through peaceful negotiation.

Italy has seized what, of all others, appeared to be the psychic moment for the demand upon Austria for the return of the rich provinces at the head of the Adriatic seized from her more than half a century ago. She has taken advantage of conditions to insist upon a restoration that shall be complete, and back of the government in making this demand is crystallized Italian sentiment.

We might read Austria's answer in Franz Joseph's pathetic, "Let me die without dishonor," which cables have carried around the world. Austria, still, is willing to give some, but not all. Italy, with the upper hand, demands all, admits of no compromise. Compromising Italian ministries were forced to give way in the face of a determined public sentiment. Indications are that it is a matter of only a few days until Italian armies are in the field for Italy, but upon the side of the allies.

Should Austria accept the humiliation, hampered as she is, of meeting the Italian demands in toto, Italy would be bound in honor to continue neutral; and with the return of her lost provinces and her saving in money and men, she would be, after all, perhaps the greatest gainer in the European struggle without having unlimbered a gun.

But there is a deep-rooted impression that Italy is anxious to get into the struggle in the hope that at the end of the rainbow there is even a bigger pot of gold than the provinces whose complete restoration she is asking. It is this sentiment which is believed to be back of the insistent demand that Austria shall yield to the last farthing. The war party wants no better excuse than Austria's refusal. Italy believes in the cause of the allies; she looks to them ultimately to triumph and dictate the terms of peace. She believes that her own entrance will bring quicker termination to the struggle; and for that service she could demand not only her lost provinces, but a right to sit and vote at the long table when European map reconstruction is undertaken.

There is the game over in the Dardanelles, in which Italy is exceedingly interested. Her war vessels are reported ready to rush to the aid of the allies as soon as the declaration is made. There is not a nation adjacent to the Mediterranean but wants a say as to the future of the Dardanelles.

Altogether, Italy would undoubtedly be better satisfied with war than without it, and Italian sentiment is perhaps the better suited that Austria refuses complete restoration. The critical moment is evidently approaching; trained guns are in readiness, and any day may bring news of hostilities commenced simultaneously with war's declaration.

BUYING AWAY FROM HOME.

Accustomed as all of us have been to deprecate the fact that the Georgia farmer, in the large aggregate, continues to spend his cotton cash for western grain and hay, instead of growing them at home, Georgians will read with surprise and, no doubt, humiliation, a statement just made public by the state department of agriculture, indicating the extreme extent to which we have gone in buying from other states those products which we can grow here in quality and quantity the equal of any soil in the country.

This statement made public by Commissioner J. D. Price is based upon careful inquiry among the wholesale merchants, brokers and commission men of Atlanta. It sets forth the amount of staple products handled in the Atlanta territory within the last twelve months, and the percentage of each bought from other states or grown within Georgia's limits. The figures will prove startling:

Atlanta bought from other states and distributed within the year, according to these figures, 98.6 per cent of 3,117,000 bushels of corn, 100 per cent of 2,700,000 bushels of wheat, 99.67 per cent of 5,690 carloads of hay, 99.21 per cent of 2,888 carloads of oats, 100 per cent of 167 carloads of rutabagas, 78.8 per cent of 41,000 bushels of white peas, 100 per cent of 256,500 cases of canned tomatoes, 96.94 per cent of 544 carloads of cabbage, 40 per cent of 813 carloads of sweet potatoes, 47.6 per cent of $340,200 worth of eggs, 49.1 per cent of $475,000 worth of poultry, and 100 per cent of all the lima beans, peanuts and onions sold through this market. These are but a few of the most striking figures given; the difference between the percentages stated and 100 per cent represents the amount of these products grown in Georgia and handled through the Atlanta market.

If these figures were not the result of careful and persistent inquiry, and furnished therefore, as approximately accurate, they must appear incredible. Is it an indictment of the Georgia farmer, or the Georgia consumer, or both? Must not the Georgia dealer also share part of the burden of responsibility? Is it that our whole system of production and distribution is wrong? Where shall we go to find the root of the trouble and stop this drain upon a prosperity whose attainment would know no limit, if we could only learn to live at home?

Atlanta is but one city—the largest, it is true, but only one—of a dozen or more extensive Georgia markets. We must take it, by analogy, that they, too, are buying in similar proportion away from home. What would the figures reach in the aggregate, if a complete state summary were made? Thought of it almost brings a shudder of protest.

When we point to the Georgia farmer who has been in the habit of growing cotton and then more cotton, neglecting often every food product, we are sometimes told that he has been made the victim of a system which demands cotton as the price of his continued existence. There is fallacy in the argument; every farmer in Georgia can emancipate himself from cotton, if he will only make the effort. The proof of it is in the thousands who have already done it.

We cannot believe that the Georgia consumer demands the foreign product. More than half the sweet potatoes he consumes, according to these figures, are Georgia-grown; every one of them should be. Is there any reason why he should reject the Georgia cabbage, the Georgia onion or Georgia canned tomatoes?

If the Georgia farmer will put into his product the quality which the Georgia soil can give it, and offer it in an attractive package, we cannot conceive of the Georgia merchant who would refuse to handle it, or the Georgia consumer who would reject it for the foreign grown.

We are forced to believe that primary responsibility for this drain upon our resources rests with the Georgia producer. If he would feed Georgia first and make cotton his surplus crop he would get just as much for his cotton crop and at the same time build a substantial bank account upon home consumption.

Every farmer in the state should study these figures and profit by them.

DEPEW'S LOST OPPORTUNITY.

Dr. Chauncey M. Depew is very much alive and 81. It was because of those four-score years plus one that the Montauk Club of Brooklyn brought him forth from his retirement the other night and celebrated the fact that he was still here. Referring to it, Dr. Depew remarked that he hoped the Montauk club "would keep it up."

Dr. Depew's return to momentary prominence was in the role that made him most famous, that of after-dinner speaker, and he touched upon everything from politics to trousers, up or down, as one may choose to put it, and then back again. Among other interesting things he told was how opportunity knocked upon his door and he refused to open:

> In 1877 I had an option on a sixth of the Bell Telephone stock for $10,000. I consulted the most famous telegraphic expert in the country, and he advised me to drop it. "It is a toy and commercially a fake," he said. Had I followed, my strong faith in the enterprise I would today, if alive, which is doubtful, be a hundred millionaire.

It is doubtful whether he would have profited in the long run, had he embraced opportunity upon the threshold. He has touched the gamut of high political, business and social ambition, and rounded out a good old age with vigorous mentality which those hundreds of millions might, as he intimates, have cut short by a score or more of years. And if memory plays fickle with his exploits of statesmanship and big business, he will at least be sung through the ages as the highest exponent of the postprandial art.

When the toastmaster of another century shall have remarked, "We have with us tonight," we can fancy the honored guest responding, "As Chauncey Depew once said," and proud to borrow from the master of them all the jest or story that will lighten the burden to those to whom stern duty forbids escape.

The shorter and uglier word has been loafing around the Roosevelt-Barnes trial, anxious for exercise.

Under its new name Culebra Cut may change its tactics and give them the Gaillard Glide.

An offended subscriber wrote the editor of The Adams Enterprise:

"To show my contempt for your paper I've patched all the broken window panes in my house with the latest copy, without reading a line in it."

To this the unruffled editor replied:

"A man with broken window panes in his house is a slow, unprogressive citizen; but, notwithstanding his 'contempt,' he practically admits that our paper filled a long-felt want. In the use to which he has put it he will have more light in his windows than he ever had before."

"Ethically, potlicker purifies the heart and conscience, politically it imparts unflagging faith in the principles of an imperishable and invincible democracy, it exalts and ennobles one's patriotism and tends to righteousness and salvation."

Horse Comes to Funeral.

(La Crosse (Wis.) Dispatch to The Philadelphia Record.)

One of the most notable cases of animal devotion to an owner was that today of Babe, a horse driven by Andrew Robinson, a La Crosse grocer, who died last week and whose funeral was held today. The horse had been driven for a dozen years by the grocer in the days before he became prosperous, when he was driving his own delivery wagon.

When he died the horse was sent at his wish to Irish Coule, 18 miles away, with a provision that she be allowed to spend the rest of her life without work in the fields at pasture. Babe, however, leaped the fence and appeared at the Robinson home just in time to follow the hearse to the cemetery, without even a halter on her neck.

Striking Evidence of Diversified Farming In Sumter County

Americus, Ga., May 6.—(Special.)—Within one mile of Americus there is the most extensive and beautiful grain field, or rather farm, to be found anywhere in Georgia, a striking evidence of diversified farming and modern methods in agriculture. Eighteen hundred acres of waving grain, oats, wheat, rye and corn, in one compact body, strikes the beholder, and elicits admiration.

Last year this same farm, the Arles plantation, owned by rich and progressive South Carolinians, produced 1,200 bales of cotton on 1,200 fertile acres. This year, under stress of conditions, the cotton area is cut to less than 300 acres which, is it estimated, should produce at least 350 bales.

Grain Acreage Increased.

But the area in grain was increased in proportion. Five hundred acres are planted in wheat, and a magnificent crop is already assured. Seven hundred acres oats, waist-high and fully headed, grow alongside the wheat field with only a road separating the two crops, while a vast area in rye, already ripening, makes a solid, compact grain field of 1,300 or 1,400 acres in one vast body. Highly fertilized, these grain crops are growing luxuriantly. The 500 acres wheat, it is estimated, will yield 30 to 35 bushels per acre, while the 700 acres of oats should yield 50 bushels, easily. Great cornfields also promise a harvest of that commodity. The splendid tract in grain reminds one of Ohio or Kansas, rather than cotton-ridden south Georgia.

There are wheat and oat fields all over Sumter county this year, and a wheat crop of at least 125,000 bushels, and twice that yield in oats, seems assured now, as rains came the past week to save the suffering crops.

To Be Made Show Place.

It seems the purpose of the owners of the Arles plantation to make of it a model grain and stock farm, and a wonderful show place in south Georgia. The fine farm is traversed by the Central railway, while the famed Andersonville-Thomasville highway comes in that direction also, and even now attracts the attention of hundreds of tourists. It is a splendid object lesson to hundreds of Sumter county farmers who are turning from cotton to more profitable crops.

Raising of fine live stock for market will also be a feature of the Arles farm, and already several car loads of fine hogs and cattle have been purchased, and will be pastured upon the grain fields when the oats and wheat is harvested. Large crops of hay and forage will be planted for the cattle and hogs, which, when fattened, will be shipped to the Moultrie packing plant, or elsewhere. This fine farm cost the owners about $150,000, and is the site of the former Bagley-Gober peach orchard.

Another enterprise to be established there at once is a great modern and model dairy and creamery. A herd of registered Guernsey cows has been purchased and one of the largest and best arranged dairies in Georgia will soon be in operation there. And this is an ante-bellum cotton plantation transformed into a modern and model stock and grain estate.

Davis St. School Children Say Their Fathers' Club Was First One in Atlanta

Editor Constitution: For some time we have been wanting to thank you for the good work you have been doing in behalf of the schools, and we decided this morning, when we gathered the first blossoms from our rose garden, to send them to you with our thanks for the many kindnesses you have shown us and for your loyalty to the schools and to the children of Atlanta.

In your paper this morning you gave an editorial notice to the Fathers' club of Tenth street school district. We should like for you to know that our school has had for four years the first, and until recently, the only fathers' club in Atlanta. This club was formed for the purpose of securing for us a new school building, but so far has secured nothing except promises.

We hope that you will keep up the fight until we and all other neglected children in the city have school buildings like those provided in some districts.

We have never been able to understand the justice of giving everything to some sections of the city and nothing to others. People in every part of the city pay the same taxes, don't they?

With best wishes, we are your little friends,

THE CHILDREN OF DAVIS STREET SCHOOL CIVIC LEAGUE.

Praises Miss Dooly.

Editor Constitution: Mrs. Boehm and I want to thank Miss Dooly for the splendid articles on our schools that are appearing in The Constitution and that emanate from her versatile pen.

She is so thoroughly informed as to the conditions that exist and as to the conditions that SHOULD exist that the mere reading of her various articles is an education, and the studying of them brings inspiration to one who tries to help bring about betterment in public school conditions.

(Pittsfield (Mass.) Dispatch to The New York World.)

Mrs. Harry C. Leach, wife of the pastor of the Morningside Baptist church, in an emergency, filled her husband's pulpit at both morning and evening services here today, preaching two sermons.

Mr. Leach was on Friday called to Maine by the illness of his mother, and his wife volunteered to preach. Tonight her subject was "The Heavenly Vision." Mr. and Mrs. Leach have been married about twelve years. This was her first appearance as his substitute in a pulpit.

A Combination That Can't Be Excelled By Any Newspaper

COMPLETE service of the Associated Press, reinforced by special correspondents in the most important cities in every country on the civilized globe; special representatives in every large city in this country; correspondents in every city, town and hamlet in Georgia.

These are what make up the news service of The Sunday Constitution.

A TWELVE-PAGE feature section the like of which the south never saw before, the features written by the best writers obtainable, the art work done by the best artists known to the newspaper fraternity; the newest and funniest comics; the news of fashions illustrated in four colors; a double page of moving pictures.

These, with others, go to make up the feature section of The Sunday Constitution.

THESE features, combined with the unparalleled news service, make a combination that can not be excelled by any newspaper—not equalled by any newspaper that Dixie ever saw.

If you wish to keep up with the times, if you want to read the news while it's new, and at the same time know that what you are reading, if you want to read a newspaper that reflects the spirit of the south, if you want features that will appeal to you and the whole family—real features, not trash or hash—

The Constitution carries an irresistible appeal!

HERE are a few of the features you will find in The Constitution next Sunday:

Should City Man Woo Country Maid?

MISS DOROTHY BRENNER is a city girl. She married a city man. After a few years of married life she wrote her husband next time "to get a girl from the country—a chicken off the farm." Miss Brenner is something of an Aristotle, and her story in Sunday's Constitution, setting forth the reasons she and her husband could not get along in double harness, is wonderfully interesting—even if her conclusions are not correct.

Both Members Of This Club

THEY are twins, aged 19 months. Their papa says they are the paperweight pugilistic champions. They have challenged any paperweight fighter in the world to meet either of them at 35 pounds ringside. These two tots are always in the "pink of condition" and their papa and mamma tell how they keep them so. The full-page story is attractively illustrated with photographs of the remarkable youngsters.

Why We Snore and Dream Of Purple Elephants

Dorothy Dolan's Housekeeper's Page

THE CONSTITUTION refrained for years from running a housekeepers' page—held back until the expert and the artists could be engaged who could get up a page worth-while, one that carried real interest, and that was really helpful to housekeepers. You will find such a page every Sunday in The Constitution.

The Bathing Girl Is Abroad in the Land

EVERY girl wants to know what is the latest in bathing suits. Every girl can find out in The Constitution Sunday. There will be two full pages, each reproduced in four colors, one entitled "For the Bathing Hour," the other entitled "Bathing Accessories."

Nothing Could Be More Amusing

THAN "baby" in search of a home and "Hank and His Animal Friends," unless it were possible to get Baby and Hank and all the animals on the same page. The popularity attained by these two comics in a short while is one of the marvels of the newspaper world.

That Double Page of Moving Pictures

EVERYBODY is a movie fan nowadays. Everybody wants to know who's who in the movie world, what's coming in the way of movie plays. There isn't but one way to find out absolutely, and that is by reading the double page which The Constitution devotes every Sunday to news and notes of the film world. It is the only way to get "behind the screens with Britt Craig."

These are only a few of the high points in next Sunday's Constitution. It is jammed full of features. You must not miss it. If you are not a regular subscriber, be one now.

You Cannot Keep Up With the Times Unless You Read THE CONSTITUTION

HUMANE SOCIETY ATTACKS POLICE

Officer Camp Declared Inefficient, and Officials Say They Received Little Help From Police Chief.

Policeman Camp, detailed by Chief Beavers to patrol the city as humane officer, was declared inefficient at a meeting of the Atlanta Humane society yesterday, and the organization appropriated money from its treasury to employ a man to protect suffering animals.

President R. C. Congdon stated that he had tried to get Camp to report once a week. He said that the officer did this about three weeks only. He said that he investigated the cases that Camp had reported, and that they were only those that had been phoned to him, that he had made practically no cases on his own initiative. He stated that he wrote Chief Beavers, and that the chief told him that if he would come before the police board he would take some action. He then stated that he got Camp to resign, but that the commissioners told Camp that the chief was his boss, and to pay no attention to the society.

Mrs. R. K. Rambo stated that she, Mrs. R. C. Congdon and Mrs. A. V. Gude went to the chief and that he told them he would investigate. She stated that she saw a cow dragged by the horns across Five Points, that an Italian organ grinder was jerking and maltreating his monkey also in the presence of officers, and they made no effort to stop them. She said that she asked the chief to send a man where they were doing some grading on Spring street and investigate charges of extreme cruelty there. She stated that there never was an officer there, and the chief absolutely ignored all petitions.

Colonel Orville Hall, vice president of the society, stated that the fines from the cases should pay for a good man. Dr. Henry Carnes stated that he would be glad to assist any officer.

On motion from B. B. Crew it was moved that a sum of money be appropriated from the treasury to employ an officer.

CANDLER TO SPEAK AT NATIONAL MEET OF THE AD CLUBS

Bishop Warren A. Candler, of Atlanta, has been invited to address the Associated Advertising Clubs of America at their convention in Chicago June 20.

The occasion will be a triangular address upon "Law, Finance and Theology." Bishop Candler, who will make an address on theology, will be one of three speakers of international note. Elihu Root will speak upon the subject of law.

This news was given in a short address to the Atlanta Ad Men's club at a luncheon in the Hotel Ansley Thursday by S. C. Dobbs, former president of the National Ad Men's clubs. "It is an unprecedented tribute to a Georgia man," said Mr. Dobbs. "Bishop Candler was selected as one of America's most eminent authorities upon a subject that eclipses law and finance. The speaker to talk upon finance has not been announced. An effort was made to get William J. Bryan, but, as President Wilson will attend the convention, the secretary of state will be forced to remain in Washington."

The Atlanta delegation of Ad Men is going to Chicago with the intention of bringing the 1916 convention to Atlanta.

FARLINGER TO INSPECT CENTRAL WAREHOUSES

Chairman A. W. Farlinger, of the council finance committee, and a member of the city purchasing department, under the "old regime," will leave Saturday for an extended visit to New York and other eastern cities to make a study of the various paving materials and city purchasing departments.

An attempt was made by Mr. Farlinger to get an appropriation from the city to pay the expenses of a committee from the purchasing department that they may inspect central warehouses and other features of the purchasing departments of the larger cities, but council turned down the proposition on the ground it was illegal.

"There can surely be no objection raised to my making the trip at my own expense," said Mr. Farlinger Thursday. "I want to make a special investigation of various paving materials and learn what success has been had with concrete paving."

BUILDING ERECTED FOR BIBLE CLASSES

The work of preparing the grounds at the Beulah Heights Bible school has culminated in the erection of a small but quite attractive house for the Bible school classes during the summer. Beginning Wednesday there will be lectures and classes and important studies in personal work. The work is in charge of Miss Sadie Wightman, 78 North Broad street.

Logan to Attend Conference.

Joseph C. Logan, general secretary of the associated charities, left yesterday evening to visit relatives in Virginia and to attend the National Conference of Charities and Corrections, convening in Baltimore, May 12 until May 20. Miss Lottie Ramspeck will have charge of the local charities during his absence. Mr. Logan is a member of the committee on time and place of the national organization and will also make an address on fundamentals causing family breakdowns.

STRIPLIN TO MANAGE SOUTHEASTERN FAIR

Meridian Man Will Assume His Duties in Atlanta on Monday, May 10.

R. M. Striplin, secretary-manager of the Mississippi-Alabama fair, at Meridian, Miss., since its organization six years ago, has been chosen manager for the Southeastern fair in Atlanta and will assume his duties Monday, May 10. He wired his acceptance of the offer Thursday morning. His election was unanimous.

The local fair directors made a careful investigation of Mr. Striplin's ability as a fair manager and also had strong testimonials.

For several years Mr. Striplin was manager of the district fair at Corinth, Miss., and was also secretary of the commercial body there. When the Mississippi-Alabama fair was organized six years ago he was placed in charge at Meridian and made it one of the leading agricultural and live stock fairs of the south.

Mr. Striplin for the past three years has been secretary of the Meridian board of trade and cotton exchange, operating the activities of the fair association through that office.

Last year Mr. Striplin was honored by being chosen president of the Southern Association of Fairs and Expositions. He is also a director of the National Trotting association and several other organizations of a kindred nature.

Mr. E. Rivers,
Atlanta, Ga.
Dear Sir:

I built my home in Peachtree Heights Park because I think it the choice location of the County, and I never expect to change it. Since moving there I like it better and better every day. We have all the conveniences, without any of the disadvantages, of life in the city, and on account of the location are exempt from city taxes.

The transportation facilities are satisfactory, and we get to business about as quickly as those who live two or three miles further in. We have water and sewers, electric lights in the street and in the home, telephones, satisfactory delivery service, good roads and sidewalks, police protection, parks and pure air. We have plenty of room and, what is best about it, we are far removed from the dust and smoke and noise of the city. Altogether, I regard it as an ideal place to live and I would not change for any other section in or around Atlanta.

Very truly yours,
Hudson Moore

Business Is Better

Business Is Better

"Business is here—lots of it. And it will get better and better as the effort is made, and the fall's business will undoubtedly be one of the best we have ever known."
J. E. C. PEDDER
General Agent Bradstreet's

Mr. Moore's letter tells the story—shows you what leading Atlantans think of this section. We have many others. Here is what a few of them say:

"I think the Peachtree Heights section is unsurpassed for home-building purposes."
JOHN M. SLATON.

"We regard the Peachtree Heights Park section as one of the finest residence sections in or around Atlanta."
J. R. SMITH AND J. H. EWING.

"It is the property that appeals to me most for residential purposes."
GEORGE W. FORRESTER.

"Atlanta is growing more rapidly northward than in any other direction, and this property lies in the immediate line of development."
EDWIN P. ANSLEY.

But we don't want you to take anybody's word for it. We prefer that you go and see for yourself.

We are going to give you an opportunity, in the very teeth of the greatest prosperity the south has ever known, to buy these lots AT YOUR OWN PRICE—and it's the last one you will have.

As you know, it has all the city conveniences, is rapidly building in fine homes, and---but go and see it; that's the best way.

Go and look at it before the sale. Look everywhere else. Make any comparison you wish. You can't find any more home property like it, because there is no more.

Take the Buckhead car, or drive out Saturday. You will regret it if you are not there.

ROBERTSON WINS SIXTH STRAIGHT

Barons Hit Fiercely in the First Three Rounds—Ellam's Homer, With Bases Full, Featured.

By Dick Jemison.

Chubby Carlton's clan rushed to the attack in the first inning of yesterday's game with Bill Smith's Crackers, and keeping their siege guns trained on the Cracker slabmen, continued the attack for two sessions longer, piling up nine runs in this time, adding another in the ninth for good measure.

By the count of 10 to 5, the Barons made it three out of four from the locals, and incidentally chalked up the sixth straight win of the season for little Dickie Robertson.

"I'll be gosh dinged if I ever saw anything like it," remarked Bill Smith after the third inning had ended. The Barons hit curve balls to left field, straight ones to center field, drops to right field and wild pitches for extra bases.

Hit Fiendishly.

They just had their batting clothes on, and the Cracker battery admitted when they came to the bench that the Barons were hitting anything and hitting it in any direction. For example, Hale hit one over his head safely, and Robertson hit a curve ball a foot outside of the plate, which he should have hit to right field, a mile a minute down the left field foul line.

But it was just a Baronial day, that was all. They had their hitting clothes on, and, although the Crackers fought hard and Moley kept a twirler warmed up, they could get but half of the Barons' total.

Magee greeted Hiett with a single. Hemingway, on the hit-and-run, shot one between third and short. Clark slammed a single, scoring Magee. Sloan forced Clark at second. McBride walked, filling the bases. Carroll popped a fly.

Ellam's Homer.

Ellam then slammed a ball nearly on the ground between third and short a mile a minute, and right in front of Lee, in left, it hit something, bounded over his head, and went to the fence for a clean home run.

Yale Sloan added another run for the Barons when he slammed a homer in the second over Moran's head.

Carroll and Ellam singled in the third. Hale forced Carroll at third. Robertson doubled, scoring Ellam. Magee singled, scoring Hale and Robertson.

In the ninth, Hemingway's single and steal and Sloan's single tallied the other Baron run.

Browning's double, Lee's single, Lee's steal and Rumler's sacrifice fly counted the first Cracker run in the sixth.

With one gone in the seventh, Bisland walked, Williams singled and Browning walked, filling the bases. Lee slammed a single to left, scoring Bisland and Williams, and when McBride let the ball get by, Browning and Lee also came in.

Mobile, Ala., May 6.—Mobile and New Orleans divided a double-header today, the locals winning the first, 12 to 1, and New Orleans the second, 9 to 6. Smith was hit hard in the first game and was relieved by Beck, whose wildness made a farce of the game. He walked eight men, hit another and made two wild pitches during two innings. Frost finally relieving him. Hogg pitched great ball throughout. Harkins and Gudger were both hit hard in the second, while Weaver was driven from the box by Mobile in the first inning, Frost relieving him and holding Mobile safe.

Kauff Penitent.

New York, May 6.—In a penitent letter today to President Gilmore, of the Federal league, Benny Kauff, the Brookfed outfielder, who last week signed a New York National contract, asked for reinstatement.

"I am anxious to play baseball again with the Brookfeds and feel sorry that I followed the advice of older men in the game and took part in the recent trouble," said the letter. It is generally understood he will be reinstated tomorrow or Saturday.

LOOKOUTS HERE FOR FOUR GAMES

Play Crackers First Games of the Season—Many New Faces With the Moosemen.

LOOKOUTS MAKE CHANGES.

Chattanooga, Tenn., May 6.—(Special.)—Wagner, former New Orleans pitcher, who was recently bought from Brooklyn, reported to Chattanooga today. Bill Bernhard was released unconditionally, but will be employed as scout. Southpaw Rosa was not taken with the team to Atlanta, and will be placed on option with some class B or class C club. Bill Bales, one-time Memphis third baseman, has been signed as utility man, and will join the club in two weeks. Lusk, at present utility man, will be released under option. The Chattanooga club is now down to the fifteen men limit except for one pitcher.

Moose McCormick and his Chattanooga Lookouts will make their first appearance of the 1915 season at Ponce de Leon this afternoon, and the two teams will tie up in their first battles of the season on any field.

McCormick will bring a team to Atlanta that is vastly strengthened over the one with which he first opened the season, and one that will give the Crackers four fierce battles.

There are several new faces on the roster of the Moosemen, who will on this trip receive their first introduction to Atlanta fandom.

At first, Harris, a newcomer, takes the place of Mickey Coyle, now with New Orleans. At second Kid Elberfeld, the former Lookout pilot, is performing nee Carl Flick, also with New Orleans. Caveny at short and Graff at third were with the Lookouts last season.

In the outfield, Texas Johnson in left and Manager McCormick in right were here last season. A prime favorite will be seen in center. None other than our friend Jud Daley, whom the Lookouts recently got in a trade with Little Rock. There is no more popular ball player in the league with local fans than this same Daley.

Behind the bate Kitchens and Betts, both new men, have supplanted Street and Graham. Harding is the only member of last year's twirlers now with the team. Bill Bernhard, former Memphis and Nashville pilot, is with the Lookouts, and the other twirlers are Ross, Marshall, Clarke and Cunningham, all new men.

Harding will probably draw the pitching assignment against the Crackers today, with Hiett or Dent working against him. Here is the probable batting order:

NATIONAL LEAGUE

Phillies 3, Dodgers 1.

Brooklyn, May 6.—Erskine Mayer pitched great ball today and Philadelphia took the first game of the series with the Brooklyns by 3 to 1. A triple by McCarty and O'Mara's double saved the Dodgers from a shut-out.

Pfeffer also pitched a good game, but wobbled in three innings. Becker's single, a pass, a batter hit and an out gave Philadelphia its first run. Paskert scored in the seventh on a triple and Cutshaw's error. Becker's triple and a single by Cravath brought in the last run.

Pittsburg, May 6.—Overcoming a three-run lead, Pittsburg hammered out a 9-to-3 victory over St. Louis today. The wildness of Meadows and Griner aided the locals in scoring four runs in the fifth inning, enough to win the game. The locals added one more in the sixth and four more in the eighth. Adams was hit hard at the start, but held St. Louis runless after the fourth.

The Braves' only run was scored when Moran crossed the plate in the third on a double steal. It was Tyler's first league game of the season. Dothan, Ala., May 6.—(Special.)—On account of the absence of the regular league umpire, the game between Dothan and Valdosta here today developed into a farce, which was called after Valdosta had scored two runs in the ninth and Dothan had two men on and one out. When Jordan started to warm up a new pitcher the Dothan umpire called the game on account of darkness, reverting the score to the eighth. The Valdosta umpire came on the field and ordered play continued, but the Dothan team had left the field.

Grammar League Games

The local grammar league will wind up the 1915 season today with the games being scheduled for play. On the south side section of the league the Normal team is leading with a perfect average, and have cinched the pennant, while Oakland has cinched the gonfalon on the north side, having won 7 and lost 1 game this season.

The games to be played this afternoon are:

North Side.

Oakland v. Crew, at Northeast Piedmont.
Tenth v. Edgewood, at Southeast Piedmont.

South Side.

Formwalt v. Fraser, at Brisbine. (Double header.)
Normal v. Grant Park, at Grant Park.
Pryor v. Slaton, at Grant Park.

PREP LEAGUE GAMES

The semi-final round of prep league games will be played this afternoon, the following being scheduled:

Marist v. Tech High, at Piedmont Park.
Boys' High v. Donald Fraser, at Decatur.
Peacock v. G. M. A., at College Park.

Old College Rivals Meet In First of Four Battles; Gala Crowd Will Attend

All aboard for Grant field. Nearly every one with the least bit of baseball inclination will board a street car for Tech's athletic field this afternoon to witness the first of four games between the Tech Yellow Jackets and the Georgia Red and Black, those historic college rivals.

Two games will be played in Atlanta, one today and another Saturday. Friday and Saturday of next week, the scene of battle will shift to Athens.

The dope on Georgia-Tech games always is something that the average dopester passes up. The teams seem to rise to heights before unattainable when they play one another. But this season it is even harder to figure them than before.

A glance at the records of the two teams only serves to further tangle one up in trying to dope a winner. Georgia lost to Auburn, but Tech beat Auburn; however, Tech lost to Mercer, while Mercer beat Georgia, and so on down the line. Comparisons of this nature only tend to get one in deeper than ever before.

In fielding and at the bat the odds appear to be about equal, comparing the men, man for man, and the same applies on the bases. In pitchers, Georgia, with Hitchcock and Corley, apparently have an edge, those Bryant and Senter will prove stiff opposition for the Red and Black.

The advance sale of tickets denotes a large crowd, another such crowd as always attends Georgia-Tech games of any kind. And Saturday's crowd will test the enormous capacity of the big Grant field stands.

The batting orders of the two teams and the pitching selections for the first game are something that cannot be forecasted, and even the rival coaches are not certain. However, here is a probable batting order:

Valuable Item for Men

Health and strength hitherto unknown will be felt surging in rich red blood through the arteries and veins and life's greatest ambitions may be realized as never before if the following special treatment is followed by those men, and women, too, who are stricken with that most dreaded of all afflictions, nervous exhaustion, accompanied with such symptoms as extreme nervousness, insomnia, cold extremities, melancholia, headaches, constipation and dyspepsia, kidney trouble, dreadful dreams of direful disasters, timidity in venturing and a general inability to act naturally at all times as other people do. Lack of poise and equilibrium in men is a constant source of embarrassment even when the public least suspects it. For the benefit of those who want a restoration to full, bounding health and all the happiness accompanying it, the following home treatment is given. It contains no opiates or habit-forming drugs whatever.

The treatment consists of (3) three-grain cadomene tablets, packed in sealed tubes, and widely prescribed and dispensed by physicians and well stocked pharmacists. Full directions for self administration now accompany each tube. It is claimed that these tablets possess the most wonderful tonic-invigorating powers which can soon be experienced after taking them.

"FRAMERS OF THE CONSTITUTION OF THE U.S.A." NO. 3

Alexander Hamilton—"Father of American Credit"

DANIEL WEBSTER says of Hamilton: "He smote the rock of National resources and abundant streams of revenue gushed forth; he touched the dead corpse of public credit and it sprung upon its feet." No man did more to build the Constitution of the United States than did Hamilton. He took a prominent part in every debate, and worked indefatigably on all the important committees. His genius, individuality and daring foresight are indelibly stamped upon every clause of our National Law—the law under which Americans are guaranteed for all time Religious, Commercial and Personal Liberty. During Hamilton's lifetime he used his great influence to encourage and protect the brewing industry. Among all the Fathers of the Republic none knew better than he that honestly-brewed barley-malt beers make for true temperance. This American Colossus, who was second only to Washington in the service rendered to his country, drank good beer all his days. We know of no one who has yet dared declare that it injured him in any way. Under the tenets of the Constitution, which Hamilton did so much to make a fact, Anheuser-Busch 58 years ago launched their great institution. During these years they have honestly brewed honest beers. To-day 7500 people are daily required to meet the public demand. Their world-famed brand BUDWEISER because of its quality, purity, mildness and exquisite flavor, exceeds the sale of any other beer by millions of bottles.

VANDY TURNS TABLES ON MERCER, 12 TO 2

Nashville, Tenn., May 6.—In a six-inning game frequently interrupted by rain and for the most part played in a drizzle, Vanderbilt turned the tables on Mercer this afternoon, winning by a score of 12 to 2.

Mercer's runs came in the sixth inning on Cochran's ringle, a pass to Sosobee and singles by Dewberry and Weaver. In the fifth Vanderbilt scored seven runs on two walks, two errors and four hits, one of which was Turner's three-bagger, which cleared the bases. Mercer played a poor fielding game, piling up seven errors, which were costly.

Perryman and Kelly Will Join Crackers This Week

The Crackers will be strengthened by the end of this week by the addition of two twirlers, one a left-hander and the other a right-hander.

The right-hander is none other than our old friend, Emmet Key Perryman, the big right-hander who was here last season and went to the St. Louis Browns. Perryman did not make good with the Browns and waivers were asked on him. If granted, and it seems likely, Perryman, according to the rules of organized baseball, must be turned back to the Crackers.

The left-hander is Herbert Kelly, the former star twirler of the Notre Dame University team and the man who, twirling for that team, pitched it to the college championship of the west. He is sent to the Crackers by the Pittsburg Pirates under optional agreement and will be recalled at the end of the season.

Sid Smith knows Kelly and is a big booster of the young left-hander. He says that Kelly, with the proper support, will prove a winner with the locals.

With the arrival of these two men, Kelly will get here today and Perryman most any day in the near future, there will be a couple of releases in the Crackers' pitching staff.

Court Finds Mrs. Burkham Is Daughter of Campbell; Will Get Half of Estate

St. Louis, May 6.—A unanimous verdict in favor of the dependants in the Campbell will case was returned by the jury here tonight. The verdict declares that Lois Campbell, now Mrs. Elzey Burkham, to be the daughter of James Campbell and therefore entitled to half of his $16,000,000 estate, willed her by Campbell.

Upon application of attorneys for the defense, Circuit Judge Kinsey immediately after the verdict was returned dismissed the entire case, denying the contestants the right to a trial upon their allegations that Campbell was of unsound mind and that he was unduly influenced in making the will by members of the church to which the property evenually would go after the death of his wife and daughters.

The contestants have four days in which to apply for a rehearing.

The jury was out two hours and fifteen minutes.

In the present hearing the contestants have sought to show that Mrs. Burkham was an adopted child of the Campbells and not entitled to share in the estate.

TAFT COMMENDS WILSON FOR NEUTRALITY STAND

Madison, Wis., May 6.—President Wilson's neutrality policy was commended today by former President William H. Taft in an address to the Wisconsin legislature.

"We are in a state of anxious expectancy, a state of sorrow," said Mr. Taft. "For a time we are enjoying a feverish activity in many branches of industry. We must take care that we are not overjoyful and misled—that all of this is real prosperity. When peace comes some of this activity will be suddenly cut off. In our business affairs we must prepare for that change.

"We have been criticised for the sale or arms and ammunition permitted under the international rules. The rule has always been that neutrals could furnish arms and foodstuffs. As a nation we should not place ourselves at a disadvantage and take an opposite view of this question. We are always unprepared for war. We must always expect aid from neutrals in case of war. It would be an unwise policy in my judgment for us to change this view."

COMPLICATIONS ARISE IN TAMPICO SITUATION

Washington, May 6.—New complications in the Tampico oil fields, from which the British navy draws much of its fuel, appeared in today's dispatches saying Villa forces now control practically all the producing points, while Carranza forces continued to hold the outlets at Tampico and Tuxpam.

Fighting was reported between Obregon and Villa forces at Morales, and Carranza agents reported that Obregon had begun an attack on Aguas Calientes.

CYCLONE DOES DAMAGE IN SOUTHERN OKLAHOMA

Ardmore, Okla., May 6.—Three persons were injured and much property damaged here today by a heavy wind storm. It was reported that Wilson, Okla., near here, was struck by a small tornado which blew down forty buildings. No one was seriously injured there. Winds of almost cyclonic force were reported over a wide section of southern Oklahoma.

URGES UNION LABORERS TO LEARN HOW TO SHOOT

Head of Pennsylvania Federation Charges Constabulary Is Used Against Strikers.

Washington, May 6.—Charges that the Pennsylvania state constabulary is used to break strikes and to create reigns of terror in times of industrial disputes, were made before the United States commission on industrial relations today by James H. Maurer, president of the Pennsylvania State Federation of Labor and member of the state legislature.

After detailing cases in which he said the state police acted against union strikers, Maurer asserted that he would advise Pennsylvania union men to learn military tactics and how to shoot to protect themselves.

"I have urged on a previous occasion that trade union men learn how to shoot to protect themselves," he told the commission, "and next week at the convention of the State Federation of Labor, I again shall advocate that union men learn the military arts to protect themselves against these agents of the commonwealth who are used against them."

Maurer submitted to the commission a pamphlet he had prepared on the Pennsylvania state police which he entitled "The American Cossack." The witness declared that during the Westmoreland coal strike in Pennsylvania the state police precipitated trouble between pickets and strike-breakers and arrested only strikers.

Official charges, Maurer said, were submitted to former Governor Tener, of Pennsylvania. At the Hazelton trolley strike, he declared, the state police were sent in without uniform to rail at strike-breakers to encourage violence. An investigation was ordered by Governor Tener, he said, and a report made, but no action was taken except to discharge a trooper proven guilty of drunkenness.

"At the recent Bethlehem Steel strike," said Maurer, "there was absolutely no need for the constabulary. There had been no trouble until the state police reached Bethlehem. Then within an hour after their arrival there was blood-shed."

Inquiry into Pennsylvania railroad labor conditions continued today. Samuel H. Moyer, former mayor of Altoona, Pa., told of the strike in the Pennsylvania shops there in 1911. The striking shopmen were peaceful, Moyer said, but G. W. Creighton, general superintendent of the Pennsylvania railroad at Altoona, constantly urged him to arrest strikers and labor organizers when he had no right to do so, and refused to do so.

Moyer said Creighton did not seem to want to settle the strike, and he finally told the superintendent that if he did not take the men back he would lead the strike himself. This, he said, led to an order to take the men back, and all but a few returned.

Creighton began a statement and will continue tomorrow.

New York, May 6.—Thomas A. Edison was awarded the Civic Forum gold medal of honor for distinguished public service at a meeting tonight of the forum. The medal went last year to Major General George W. Goethals.

WILSON PREFERS GOLF TO TALK ON SUFFRAGE

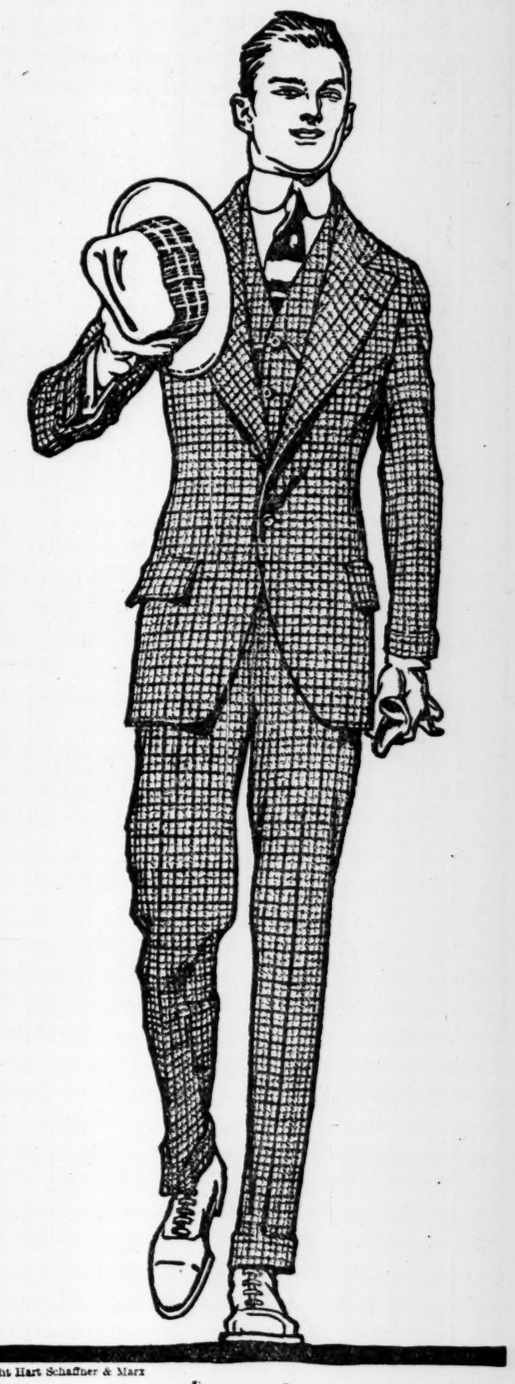

Washington, May 6.—President Wilson was besieged in the white house today by Mrs. Lawrence Lewis, Jr., and Mrs. Harry Lowenburg, Philadelphia woman suffragists, who refused to accept word from secretaries that the president would be unable to receive a delegation of suffragists when he goes to Philadelphia Monday to address a meeting of newly naturalized citizens.

The two women presented their request to the white house yesterday and early today received the president's answer. They returned to the white house several times, insisting that thy be allowed to see the president personally, and were told he was busy seeing other callers. They replied they would remain at the white house until they saw him.

"We came to lay this request before the president," Mrs. Lowenburg said, "and we will not go back until we have seen him. Our delegation will see the president somewhere in Philadelphia when he goes there."

When the president went to lunch at 1 o'clock and all the secretaries left the executive offices the two women remained on guard, despite the fact that they were told repeatedly that the president would have no time for anything on his trip to Philadelphia except to deliver his scheduled address.

After a long wait the two suffragists discovered President Wilson had left for the golf links, and they departed promising to return when the president did and renew their vigil.

New York, May 6.—A further decline at the opening of the cotton market today was followed by a rally of approximately $1.50 per bale, and while the advance was not fully maintained with the close barely steady, last prices still showed net gains of from 10 to 15 points.

There appeared to be a good many over-night selling orders around the ring at the opening, while pressure was also encouraged by the very weak showing of the Liverpool cables, and the market started at a decline of 11 to 16 points on the old crop and of 2 to 5 points on new crop months. Liverpool houses were heavy sellers as this decline did not meet the English break, and there was also further scattering liquidation from southern and western sources. Around 9.50 for July and 8.89 for October contracts, there was very heavy buying, however, and prices soon steadied. Wall street houses traded both ways but bought heavily on balance while there was also a considerable demand attributed to spinners or some of the larger trade houses. This, combined with the unfavorable western belt forecast and reassuring early advices as to far eastern political conditions, served to encourage rather a more aggressive demand from local bulls, and prices sold about 11 to 18 points net higher around midday. The advance was checked at this level by realizing and slight reactions followed reports that China had received the Japanese ultimatum, but the market developed renewed firmness during the middle of the afternoon on reports of heavy rains in Texas and Oklahoma with active months selling 19 to 22 points net higher. Realizing was active enough to cause reactions of 8 or 9 points from the best in the late trading.

Spot cotton quiet; middling uplands, 10.05; sales, 1,500 bales.

NEW ORLEANS REACTED.

New Orleans, La., May 6.—Cotton reacted smartly from the decline today, the movement having its inception in the attempt of recent short sellers to take profits. In the early trading prices responded to the weakness of Liverpool but the market refused to follow the English decline very far. At a level 8 to 10 points under yesterday's close the demand became greater than the ring could supply and there was a quick recovery of the early loss. Prices mounted over the level of yesterday's close and in the later afternoon were at their best, 26 to 29 points up from the bottom and 17 to 20 points over yesterday's finals. The close was at a net gain of 14 to 16 points.

Rains in Texas did much to stimulate the buying of the morning, while a rumor that Italy had declared war on Austria was an important influence, as was also the report that China and Japan were coming to an amicable understanding. The strongest period of the session was in the afternoon folowing the report that snow was falling in the Panhandle of Texas. Pressure to sell from the short side was almost entirely absent today.

Hubbard Bros. & Co.

New York, May 6.—(Special.)—It appears from cable advices that the unaccountable weakness in Liverpool for the past week has been due to the selling by the English government against the cotton they have taken from the vessels bound for continental ports which they have detained. Under the old conditions American buying orders would have absorbed these hedges and prevented the disastrous decline, but the Liverpool market alone was not large enough to do so in addition to what they are already carrying. So Liverpool broke down until it was actually selling below the freight difference and our market in time was adversely affected. The result is due to legislation and to commerical reasons.

From the opening today the American markets steadily advanced under the adverse crop reports, while the Liverpool market hardly advanced at all.

Jay, Bond & Co.

New York, May 6.—(Special.)—Liverpool was weak again today, influenced largely by the China-Japan question, and although the latter caused heavy selling here late yesterday, induced further liquidation early today because of Liverpool's attitude.

While prices declined to new low levels under the renewal of offerings, they subsequently recovered owing to an active demand from both southern and local spot interests; the tone of the market continued nervous, however, because of the rumors and counter rumors of war, but these have now lost much of their force by reason of the market having passed through a period of extensive liquidation.

Dry Goods.

New York, May 6.—Cotton goods steady and quiet today. Men's wear war orders are keeping some of the large woolen mills busy. Dress goods in better call. Japan raw silk firm. Yarns steady.

TRADING IN STOCKS LIGHT THURSDAY

Foreign Situation Was Not Much of a Depressing Factor—Rumor That Amalgamated Copper Co. Will Dissolve in Near Future.

New York, May 6.—The foreign situation was less of a depressing factor in today's stock market, but trading was subject to some restraint and irregular price changes. In the course of the early decline leading stocks went as low or lower than at yesterday's close, but general improvement was shown in the final dealings, the movement being concurrent with semi-official advices, which suggested some reduction of the strain between Austria and Italy. In the main, the day's operations were professional. Bethlehem Steel partly reasserted its recent leadership. Pressed Steel Car, the locomotive issues, some of the motors and petroleums scored advances of 2 to 4 points, but Westinghouse failed to hold its recent prominence.

There were rumors that the Amalgamated Copper company is to dissolve, with resultant benefits to its shareholders, as well as to Anaconda, which now controls the operations of the Amalgamated company.

GOOD CROP OUTLOOK SENDS WHEAT DOWN

Market Closed Unsettled at 1-8 to 1 Cent Under Wednesday's Close—Corn and Oats Also Recede.

Chicago, May 6.—Wheat averaged lower today owing chiefly to the continued generally excellent outlook for the domestic crop. The close was unsettled 1-8 to 1-cent under last night. Corn finished 3-8@1-2c to 1-2@5-8c down; oats off 1-8@1-4c to 1-4@3-8c, and provisions ranging from 20c decline to a rise of 10c.

Although wheat values at the outset showed an appearance of strength, the bears soon were in a majority.

Corn weakened with wheat. Ohio and Indiana were said to be underselling Chicago.

Good rains and the absence of any important shipping call made oats recede with corn and wheat.

Provisions were unsettled by a decline in the hog market.

AIRBRAKE MEETING WILL BE HELD HERE, WIRES FRED HOUSER

Atlanta has landed another convention. Fred Houser, secretary of the Atlanta Convention bureau, sent a telegram Thursday from Chicago saying Atlanta had won the 1916 convention of the Airbrake Members' association. This organization will bring more than five hundred delegates here from all parts of the nation.

Secretary Houser said there were nine prominent cities from as many sections of the country competing for the next convention, but that the association was not able to pass up the bid of Atlanta.

Soldiers of the South First Gave Woman Vote, Suffragists Are Told

Blair Foster and Leonard J. Grossman, two Atlanta lawyers, last night addressed the suffrage school in the parlors of Hotel Ansley, under the auspices of the Atlanta Equal Suffrage association, Mrs. Amelia Woodall presiding.

Contracts from a neutral angle was the subject of an interesting and exhaustive address by Mr. Foster, who has recently been selected to fill the chair of instructor of contracts in the Southern College of Law.

"Suffrage is a southern institution," said Mr. Grossman. "Suffragists the nation over are glad that a confederate soldier will be the next governor of Georgia. He has signified his willingness to sign a suffrage bill, and why? Because Georgia's next governor knows the first legislature to ever enfranchise American women was composed of and dominated by his old comrades in arms—the confederate soldiers from the left wing of General Price's army—who willingly gave the vote to their wives and mothers in Wyoming forty-six years ago.

"The confederate soldier is so obviously the father of suffrage in this country that this fact, when known, will have a peculiar significance in Georgia's attitude toward this cause, first championed by the old soldiers."

Mrs. Mary L. McLendon, president of the Georgia Suffrage association, conducted a question box at the meeting. A delegation of Rome suffragists, headed by Mrs. Jeanette de Jarnette, attended.

AT THE THEATERS

Keith Vaudeville.

(At the Forsyth.)

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Barry are two Atlanta favorites who are convulsing with laughter the big audiences that flock to the Forsyth theater this week. The Great Carter and his company of famous illusionists are headliners, presenting two acts, the first being a presentation of Carter's repertoire of amazing feats of legerdemain, and the second being his masterstroke of mystic science, "The Lion's Bride." Other acts on the bill are William Pruette and company in "A Holland Romance," a comic operette by Jean Havez; Joe Van and Gus Schenck in songs and music; the Sully family in "The Information Bureau," a melange of song, dancing and variety, and Genevieve Warner, harpist, assisted by Charlotte Francis, violinist.

"Little Sunset."

(At the Grand.)

In moving pictures Hobart Bosworth as an actor and as a director has long reigned supreme. His greatest work is yet to be viewed in his newest offering, "Little Sunset," an absorbing story. It is the story which made Charles E. Van Loam famous. Hobart Bosworth, besides staging the picture, plays the leading role. "Little Sunset" is a boy story, revolving around the humanly interesting pictures of a boy foundling adopted by a team of professional baseball players and carried with them on their tour of the league circuits. Besides being of intense heart interest to movie lovers as a whole, it will be of especial attraction to baseball fans. It will be shown at the Grand only today.

SUBMARINE OFFICERS PROUD OF RECORD RUN

New York, May 6.—Officers of the five submarines lying in the Hudson river today as the vanguard of the great Atlantic fleet to assemble here for review from May 8 to 18 were proud of the records made by boats of the E class, on the run from Key West to New York. One of the boats, the E-1, it was stated, completed a voyage of 1,230 miles under her own power without a stop.

Submarines of the K class were expected here today after a run from Pensacola, Fla. These are said to be the equal of any submarines in the world. The submarine flotilla to assemble here within the next few days is said to be the largest ever gathered under the American flag.

NEGRO PRISONERS ATTACK OFFICER AND MAKE ESCAPE

Waycross, Ga., May 6.—(Special.)—Early today Policeman W. C. Garliner was attacked and seriously injured by three unknown negroes who had been placed under arrest a short time before and were en route to jail when the assault occurred. So suddenly did the negroes turn that the officer was unable to make effective use of his pistol. Three shots were fired with a negro holding to the pistol, but all went wide as far as is known. The officer was badly bruised about the face and one hand severely lacerated.

The surrounding country is being scoured for the negroes. A number of suspects were arrested during the day but none have been identified.

PARTICIPANTS IN DUEL NOW OUT OF DANGER

I. J. Nash, aged 40, of 429 East Fair street, who engaged J. D. Brunson, a young dental student, in a desperate pistol duel Wednesday night on Gilmer street, when both men were wounded several times, is fast recovering at the Grady hospital. Brunson, who received more serious wounds, is also reported as out of danger.

According to friends of Brunson, who visited him at the hospital Thursday, Mrs. Hattie Nash, a pretty young woman, about whom Nash said he had engaged Brunson in the pistol duel, visited the hospital during the day and remained for the greater part of the time by the side of the youthful student.

The Grady internes said Mrs. Nash's own mother came to the hospital and sat by the bedside of her wounded son-in-law the greater part of the day.

POLICE PROBERS WILL HOLD MEETING TONIGHT

The special probe committee of the police board will meet tonight at 8 o'clock in the commissioners' room at police barracks. A committee of the directors of the Atlanta Associated Charities, headed by Victor H. Kriegshaber, is scheduled to appear before this committee to ask for a number of reforms in police methods.

The most important recommendations that will be made by the Charities committee will be that three inspectors, one for each police watch, be appointed, and that their sole duties be to examine the charges against prisoners before they are locked in jail, with the view that they be turned loose or released upon a copy of charges, pending trial before the police recorder, if the charges are not serious.

SHOWERS FOR TONIGHT, SAYS THE FORECASTER

Forecaster von Herrmann, Atlanta's weather man, predicted last night that Friday was to be fair, with the probability of light showers Friday night.

Atlanta welcomed last night a slight shower, which, for a time, shortly after nightfall, threatened to be a small-sized windstorm.

Waycross Food Inspector.

Waycross, Ga., May 6.—(Special.)—Dr. John C. Scully has started work in Waycross as city meat, food and milk inspector, working under the two recently passed health ordinances. He will work in connection with the city physician, Dr. D. M. Bradley. The inspector has given notice to the public not to purchase meat offered for sale in Waycross unless it bears either the government or city inspection mark. The city laws will be enforced to the letter, and while the regulations may work some hardship at the start, it is believed little trouble will be experienced in having everyone co-operate with the city in the campaign to protect the health of Waycross.

AMALGAMATED COPPER CO. TO BE DISSOLVED

New York, May 6.—Stockholders of the Amalgamated Copper company have received a circular from the president, John D. Ryan, stating that the Amalgamated company has become merely the holding company of the Anaconda Copper Mining company, and it is proposed to dissolve the Amalgamated company and distribute its assets.

To do this to best advantage, the company has decided to sell an amount of Anaconda stock which will reduce the holdings of the company so that distribution on the present issue of shares of the Anaconda company may be made at the rate of two shares of Anaconda for one of Amalgamated. To carry out this plan, directors of the Amalgamated have concluded to offer stockholders of record on May 17 next the privilege of buying one share of Anaconda at $25 per share for each six shares of Amalgamated held by them.
